NOVEMBER LIBRARY NEWS

In November we feel the year closing down, with rain glistening on dark streets, students feeling the burden of assignments and approaching exams, their parents beginning to worry about Christmas arrangements - kind of a depressing time of year, when you think about it, BUT ....

Speaking of Christmas, UNICEF cards will again be on sale in the Library, beginning on November 5th. Look for the attractive selection around the corner next to the art display, in the same location as last year.

We also have a BOOK SALE on in the Library running from 8:30 a.m. - 5 p.m. Sunday, November 1st, then during regular hours of operation until 9 p.m. Tuesday, the 3rd.
This popular semi-annual event attracts many bargain seekers so an early visit is recommended. On the other hand, everything that's left sells for half price (50 cents per hardcover book, two paperbacks for 25 cents) on Tuesday and there usually are still plenty of fine items to choose from then.
