

Library • The Inquiring Mind

- ◀ A visit from the West Vancouver Fire Department during Fire Prevention Week. Young enthusiasts learned about fire prevention, met some firefighters and had a tour of a real fire engine.

- ◀ Special guest Lyle Povah led a drumming workshop during our Set the Stage – Read! summer reading club last summer.

Men in Blue. Local high school student Nick Kent produced a video entitled "Men in Blue." ▶ A screening of the video, with tributes to our Blue Bus drivers, drew a crowd of 75 on a Saturday afternoon.

The library's Teen Advisory Group did a terrific job of decorating our bookmobile and walking with us in the Community Day Parade. ▶

Muriel captivates our youngest library patrons during a Babytime session. ▶ Babytimes start again in October.

- ◀ Our witch (Irene) tells ghostly stories to school age children to celebrate Halloween.

Louise shows high school students how to use our e-resources during an orientation session. ▶

