Trinity Sunday (June 12th).
8 a. m.—Holy Communion.
10 a. m.—Sunday School.
11.15 a. m.—Morning Prayer.
7.15 p. m.—Evensong.

The preacher on Sunday evening will be the Rev. J. Newton Sykes, who is leaving soon to live in England. Mr. Sykes is well known in this parish having officiated here at various times for the past ten years and his many friends will have this opportunity of saying good-bye to him and wishing him well in his new work. It is expected that the Loyal Orange Lodge of which Mr. Sykes is a member will be present at this service.

Highest marks in the recent Sunday School examination were secured by Albert Kendrick with 82%, and he thus wins the prize offered of one week at the Anglican Summer Camp at Long Bay.

The A. Y. P. A. closed their regular season with a very enjoyable banquet held Tuesday night in the Parish Hall. Following an excellent meal prepared by the young ladies of the society and the toast to the King Miss Peggy Cornish proposed the toast to the A. Y. P. A. which was responded to by Mr. Bain, representing the Vancouver council of the association. The toast to the Church was in the hands of Miss Isabel Wilson and Mr. Wilfred Hawkes and that to Canada was proposed by Miss Connie Thomas and responded to by Miss May Garland. The speaker of the evening was Mr. Justice Murphy, who in a most entertaining way outlined the history of British Columbia from its earliest mention in the annals of the nations down to the first quarter of the nineteenth century.

The A. Y. P. A. tennis team broke even with St. Mark's in the first league game played on Mr. Chapman's court last Saturday evening. Miss Chapman and Miss Lloyd losing to Miss Harton and Miss Goddard 8-6, 6-8, 2-6; and Messrs Crickmay and Earley defeating Messrs. Harris and Lang 6-3, 8-7.

At a meeting of the teachers of the Sunday School held Tuesday night it was decided to hold

Pastor—Rev. Father Kelly
Sunday—Mass, 8.30 a. m.
High Mass, 10.30 a. m.
Benediction, 7.30 p. m.
Week Days—Mass 8 a. m.

The ladies of St. Anthony's Church paid a surprise visit on Father Kelly and his sister, Miss Kelly last Tuesday evening to welcome them to West Vancouver. Father Kelly has come to West Vancouver from Omaha, Nebraska, to be the resident priest of St. Anthony's Church, Father Macdonald, the former pastor, having been moved to St. Helen's Church, Vancouver Heights.

The regular meeting of Review No. 24, Woman's Benefit Association, was held on Wednesday evening in the Ambleside Hall. The commander, Mrs. Edwards, in the chair.

Owing to the whist drive being held later in the evening, it was decided to dispense with much of the regular business.

District Deputy, Mrs. Emma J. Kidd, who was a most welcome visitor, outlined the plans now under consideration, regarding the part which the W. B. A. will take in the Jubilee parade.

As the Woman's Benefit Association has become such a vital factor in the lives and homes of thousands of women throughout the Dominion, it is felt that no pageant, depicting the country's progress, would be complete without adequate representation from this body.

It has been suggested that the captains, color-bearers and guard teams, represent their respective reviews.

The military whist drive which followed the meeting was most enjoyable. The prize winners were, Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. McTavish, gentleman's prize, Mr. Strong and Mrs. Gass. The consolation prizes went to Mr. and Mrs. Garland and Mr. and Mrs. Morris. The hidden prizes went to Mrs. Romans and Mr. Strong.
