He: "How do people tell you twins apart?"

She: "Oh, my sister has a mole on her thigh."

Lieutenant (examining recruit): "Have you got any scars on you?"

Recruit: "No, but I can give you a cigarette."

PERSONALS

Mrs. P. C. Chapman and family, King's Ave., who have been summering at Sechelt, returned home on Thursday, 1st September.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Tiderington and family, who have been occupying the Patterson house at 24th and Waterfront, have moved into a house at 25th and Bellevue.

Mr. and Mrs. Howes who have been summering at No. 1 Wing Point, have returned to their home in Princeton, B.C.

Mrs. Murison has moved into Mrs. B. M. Grady's annex, 24th and Waterfront.

Kenneth R. Tiderington, son of J. R. Tiderington, 25th and Bellevue, is ill at St. Paul's Hospital.

Mrs. Mackenzie, who has been visiting Mrs. Macdonald, 23rd and Jefferson, has left on her return to the east.

Mr. and Mrs. McNab of Vancouver, Washington, visited Mr. J. Finlayson of the Dundarave Pharmacy over the holidays. They were much impressed with the beauties of West Vancouver.

Mrs. Sully and Mrs. Loveley, who have been guests at the Fortune Cup Inn, have left for Vancouver.

Mrs. Oberly, who has been a guest at the Fortune Cup Inn, has returned to the city.

Mrs. Armstrong, 23rd and Bellevue, has returned from a trip up the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kloepfer, 19th and Waterfront, have returned to Vancouver.

Mrs. Nina McCarthy of Vancouver, who has been holidaying for some weeks in Penticton and the Okanagan, is spending a fortnight in West Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Black of Calgary, who are on a tour of the Pacific Coast, were the guests last week of Mrs. George Pineo, 13th and Keith Road.

J. W. Lynn, the Hollyburn Postmaster, asks the public to remember that he has an outgoing and incoming mail to attend to between the hours of 3 p.m. and 4 p.m. If many come for their mail during this period, it makes it very difficult for him to attend to the two mails going out and coming to his office.

Mrs. Carl W. Reid and her two children with her mother, Mrs. C. H. Wood, have returned to the city, after a holiday spent at Cypress Park.

People Will Talk

It's as easy to make a bad name for yourself as it is to make a good one. When people are pleased with the laundry they deal with they just keep on telling their friends. And that's exactly why we have so very many thoroughly satisfied customers.
