SEE EARLY SOLUTION OF TRAFFIC PROBLEM

According to reports submitted by members of the North Vancouver City Council Monday evening, the visit on Monday of Hon. W. A. McKenzie, acting minister of public works, and the deputy minister will likely result in a solution to the traffic problem that has been created here, owing to the inadequacy of the city's wooden bridges.

Members of the North Vancouver City Council, with the government representatives, made an inspection of Third Street, Keith Road, Larson Road, McKay Creek and Mosquito Creek wooden bridges. The close examination made by the minister and his assistant conveyed to members of the council the impression "that the government representatives are convinced that something of a permanent nature has to be provided to replace the existing wooden structures."

The North Vancouver City Council anticipates that the acting minister of public works will consult with Hon. Nels Loughheed on this matter, and a definite reply to the requests made by the council is expected in a few days.

The government representatives expressed the wish that the North Vancouver City Council submit a definite proposition, showing to what extent it desires the government to assist in replacing the wooden bridges with permanent concrete works. The matter is receiving the attention of the council and a decision will be reached shortly and forwarded to the government.

"At a glance, the government representatives practically told us that we have not a bridge left in the city," said Ald. H. C. Anderson, who added that Hon. Mr. McKenzie and his assistant were greatly impressed with the urgency of the case by their personal view of the situation.

Elimination of the right-angle turn at the corner of Third street and Bewicke avenue was one of the changes suggested by the minister, and government engineer and the North Vancouver City Council already has the matter under consideration.

The star pupil rose at the school entertainment to declaim his piece. "Lend me your ears!" he bawled. "Ha!" sneered the mother of the pupil whom he had defeated for honors, "that's Sarah Jane Doran's boy, all right. He wouldn't be his mother's son if he didn't want to borrow something."

CARDINALS DEFEAT ELKS AND GO INTO 2nd PLACE TIE

By defeating Elks 4-2 in a league game at Mahon Park, Monday evening, Capilano Cardinals once more went into a tie with Squamish for second place.

The antlered nine experienced an off night in the field which was the biggest contributing factor toward their defeat. Traeger and Mills held the Cardinals to four scattered blows but infield errors, which came when the bases were populated, let in the runs. McKinney, on the mound for Cardinals, was touched up for seven blows, but he pitched good ball and was given excellent support when danger loomed.

Farquharson with three hits in four trips to the plate was the big noise of the game with the bat.

Summary—Two-base hit, Larson; stolen bases, Morden, J. Maaveety 2; bases on balls, off McKinney 2; Traeger 1; struck out by McKinney 10, Traeger 5, Mills 1; wild pitch, McKinney; passed balls, Black 2; 4 hits 4 runs off Traeger in 5 innings, 0 hits 0 runs off Mills in 1 inning; losing pitcher, Traeger; left on bases, Elks 6, Cardinals 5; time 1.24; umpires S. Josephs and Bowling.

EAGLE ISLAND

(West Vancouver)

Dear little Isle in the sea,
Surrounded by forest and water,
You've stole this wild heart O me,
For I'm a true Erin's daughter.
Wonderful rocks and arbutus trees,
Haven of peace, and a wind cleaned breeze;
Fleet of small boats, and one white sail;
Flash of wings and a sea-gull's wail.
I've loved you best when day was done,
The evening shadows creeping on,
Witchery of moonlight luring me
As I watched its beams on the restless sea,
While waves gleaming on the Gulf, so fair,
And the ripples laughing in the August air.
Dear little Isle in the sea,
Sure you've stolen this wild heart O me.
