LEGION TO HOLD REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING

The West Vancouver branch of the Canadian Legion is holding their regular monthly meeting next Monday evening, 4th November, at 8 p. m. in the Legion rooms, ferry building. At this meeting it is hoped that arrangements will be made for the annual Christmas raffle, also for the annual church parade next Sunday week to St. Stephen's Church, as well as the parade to the Armistice Day service at the Memorial Arch on Monday week. Every member is requested to attend.

A special meeting will be held tonight in the Legion rooms at 8 p. m. when it is expected that arrangements will be made looking to the completion of the meeting house.

Several men from West Vancouver attended the re-union of the 47th Battalion held last Saturday in New Westminster among them being Major A. S. Mills, Rev. A. H. Priest, W. R. Simpson, E. Weedon. The address at the service in Holy Trinity Cathedral for the laying of the battalion colors was given by the Rev. A. H. Priest. Major Mills was in charge of the programme following the re-union dinner in the armories. Upwards of five hundred men were present at the celebration.

DESSERT SONG AT LONSDALE THEATRE CHORUS OF 100 IN SCREEN OPERETTA

The most remarkable chorus ever assembled for a musical production appears in the Warner Brothers Vitaphone production. "The Desert Song," the first talking and singing operetta ever shown on the motion picture screen, and a screen play which marks a new milestone in the upward progress of the sound film.

With the possible exception of New York City, nowhere else but in Hollywood could such an array of singers be obtained for chorus work. The roster includes former stars of comic opera and musical comedy, both men and women, as well as many soloists who are well-known to radio audiences of Los Angeles broadcasting stations. A number, indeed, have made regular appearances over KFWB, the Warner Brothers radio station in Hollywood.

One hundred singers comprise the chorus of "The Desert Song" and were rehearsed for three weeks prior to the beginning of actual production of the picture by Ernest G. Grooney, the well-known English conductor, who was assisted by William McGann. As a result of the superior quality of their voices, these singers render the most magnificent chorus work ever heard in America, and impart additional thrills to the production. Sigmund Romberg's complete score is played by the Vitaphone Symphony Orchestra.

The exceptional all-star cast of "The Desert Song" includes John Boles, Louise Fazenda, Carlotta King, Johnny Arthur, John Miljan, Myrna Loy, Marie Wells, Jack Pratt, Edward Martindel, Otto Hoffman, Robert E. Guzman, Del Elliott and many others and was produced under the direction of Roy Del Ruth.

The Desert Song is now playing at Lonsdale Theatre, North Vancouver.

MASQUERADE DANCE TONIGHT BY I. O. D. E.

The committee in charge of the Masquerade Dance tonight in the Hollyburn Pavilion under the auspices of the Duncan Lawson chapter, I. O. D. E., announce that they anticipate a large gathering, better costumes, and more fun than ever before. Everything is in readiness. To the list of judges they are pleased to be able to add the names of Miss Currie, North Vancouver, and Captain Ian Mackenzie, M.P. P.

The committee has gone to considerable trouble to make this one of the outstanding events of the season, and there is no question but that the pavilion will be filled to capacity. This annual masquerade is an event eagerly anticipated by a great number of West Vancouver people and it also attracts a large number of outside residents.

K. J. Butt wrote the Board asking for the use of the auditorium of Inglewood School for tennis practice. Permission was refused.

Certainly Not

Abie Budne took his eight-year-old nephew to a show the other day and purchased only one ticket.

"You will have to have a ticket for the boy," said the doorkeeper.

"Meester," answered Abie, "I giff you my void as a gentleman, he vont look!"

DUNDARAVE LADIES' CHOIR TO GIVE GIPSY CONCERT

The Dundarave Ladies Choir under the direction of Mrs. F. X. Hodgson, make its first public appearance this season, in the Auditorium, Inglewood High School, on Wednesday, November 20th, when they will present a gipsy concert, in costume.

This promises to be a most delightful and vivid affair, and will consist of two short cantatas interspersed with Gipsy solos, duets and quartettes, both old and new. The choir will be assisted by an orchestra conducted by Mrs. Knight-Hodge.

On Tuesday last after the regular practice the Dundarave Ladies Choir held their monthly social evening, to which friends of the members were invited. A most enjoyable evening was spent, the soloists being Mrs. W. R. Clarke, Robert Froude, Tom Turner and Gordon Gray. R. D. Brewis gave one of his amusing recitations. The Dundarave Ladies Quartette also contributed to the evening's amusement.

The next practice is on Tuesday next, November 5th, and all members are requested to attend.

HEALTH OFFICER FOR NORTH VAN. CITY AND DISTRICT PROPOSED

Appointment of a full-time medical health officer to have jurisdiction in the city and district, was considered at the joint meeting of the city and district councils in the District Municipal Hall Tuesday evening.

Members of the council said the appointment of one individual who would devote his full time to maintaining a high standard of health in the two municipalities would be an investment in the interests of residents of both areas. A special committee will soon be appointed to ascertain the views of the city and district school boards and then place a scheme before the councils for final consideration.

The special committee will ask West Vancouver Municipal Council officials if they wish to participate in the scheme.

Figures submitted showed that at present medical supervision in the two municipalities is costing $2760 annually, and the opinion prevailed that if one man were appointed to look after the health of the two municipalities no greater expenditure would be involved and greater efficiency would result.
