

Victim of Ridge Tragedy To be Buried on Monday

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to Mrs. and Mr. Murch and family in the sad passing of Mrs. Murch's 21-year old son, Andrew Crawford. Andrew went up Hollyburn Ridge last Sunday morning. Not having returned on Sunday night his family was somewhat perturbed but thought that he had encountered conditions causing him to spend the night in one of the many cabins up there. On Monday morning, however, his continued absence made them anticipate some accident and Mr. Murch got in touch with the police about 9 o'clock in the morning. Nothing was done until Bill Russell and Robert Normand were told of his stepson's disappearance by Mr. Murch at noon. These two immediately set out for Hollyburn Ridge to search for the missing man but finding no trace returned hoping that he had got back.

Learning that he was still missing they started off again on another trail telling Mr. Murch that if unsuccessful this time they would organise a regular search that (Monday) night. Within one hour of their second return a search party of about 25 was organised. Mr. Paterson, principal of the High School was asked to get in touch with some of his older pupils and ex-pupils who knew the hills. Most of the searchers got up from their supper tables after a day's work and spent that night on the Ridge. They met at Ambleside about 8 p.m. and divided into six parties each taking a small flask of rum and a first aid kit. Arrangements were made for signalling in case Crawford should be found. The uppermost thought in all minds was the necessity of quick action, hoping against hope that the missing lad might be saved from a second night's suffering.

These searchers spent the entire night searching the hills and many of them who came down early in the morning started off again right after breakfast.

By this time other agencies had got into action. The B. C. Mountaineering Club and the Canadian Alpine Club members organised search parties and every nook and cranny on the Ridge was thoroughly searched.

On Wednesday afternoon about 2 p.m. a party of four West Vancouver boys, R. F. F. Robinson, Albert Hawkes, George Stack and G. Court discovered the body in the bed of the east fork of Cypress Creek at the western extremity of Hollyburn Ridge.

According to the boys and to members of the main search party that arrived on the scene a few minutes after the discovery, Crawford's hands were badly lacerated from his efforts to claw his way up the steep bank of the creek.

From marks on the bank he had slipped over its edge and then succeeded in creeping back to the top, only to slide back from exhaustion. He also had a cut on his head, but this wound was received about two weeks ago in an auto accident and apparently reopened by his frantic efforts.

However, all searchers agreed his injuries were not of a serious nature and the cause of death was exhaustion and the intense cold. Death probably took place Sunday night.

The names of some of the West Vancouver men taking part in the search were: Harry Dixon, Bob Parkyn and brother, R. A. Fraser, Harry Normand, George Smith, Jack Normand, Bill Reid, Bobby Seeds, Rex McLean, M. Romans, F. Patterson, J. Condon, J. T. Watt, Bill Jessop, A. Duncan, P. Blower, B. Russell, Mac Ford, W. Russell, T. Russell, R. Normand, A. W. Kruger, R. F. Robinson, Albert Hawkes, George Stack and G. Court. There were several others whose names we were unable to obtain.

The remains are now at the undertaking parlors of Harron Bros. and Williamson of North Vancouver where funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock next Monday afternoon. Interment will be in the Capilano View Cemetery. Mr. J. McC. Hill of the Christian Science Society will read the burial service.

COUNCIL THANKS VOLUNTEER SEARCHERS FOR LOST HIKER

At the meeting of the Council yesterday the following resolution was carried unanimously:

THAT a letter of public acknowledgement and of appreciation be sent to the B. C. Mountaineering Club for the splendid services rendered at the recent sad tragedy on the Ridge, and, further, that the Council at this sad time cannot but express their pride at the unhesitating response of the younger residents to the call for aid in searching while hope remained by day and night the snow covered slopes and ravines for their missing comrade.

HE IS YOUR FRIEND

If he gives you recognition
When your clothes are patched and torn,
If he comes to see and cheer you
When you're lying sick and worn,
If he takes your hand and lifts you up
When you're on the downward track,
If he says the same things to your face
That he says behind your back,
If when odds are strong against you,
He fights for you to the end;
Bind him tightly to your heart—
For that man is your friend.

So many men take pride in being called hard workers. I prefer to be called an easy worker. I know some easy workers who accomplish much. Let us judge men by their accomplishments, not by the way they work.

Annual Burns' Supper Tomorrow

The fifth annual Burns' Supper under the auspices of the West Vancouver Scottish Society will be held in the Ingleswood School Auditorium tomorrow (Saturday) night.

The Burns' celebration is one of the great events of the year to Scotsmen throughout the world and as West Vancouver is the home of so many of them it can reasonably be expected that the auditorium will be crowded to capacity. It is not only the Scottish people, however, who attend these suppers. At nearly all of them there is a good sprinkling of people of other nationalities, admirers of the famous bard, who wish to do honor to the Immortal Memory. Such people will be given a hearty reception by the hosts.

Whimsical Review

The Chicken Coop

A fresh young fellow, who was driving a coupe, hung out the following sign on the rear of his car: "Lost and Straying Chickens, Here's a Welcome Coupe."

Lucky Aunt May

Mummy, has Aunt Betty got a little baby?
Yes, dear.
Has Aunt May?
No, she has a little dog instead.
Oh, I suppose she had first pick.

Maybe

Matty—"I wonder if Professor Kidder meant anything by it?"
Charlie—"By what?"
Matty—"He advertised a lecture on 'Fools' and when I bought a ticket it was marked, 'Admit One.'"

His Big Lesson

Lots of reading on it, he observed, as he perused the text of the bond application with great interest.

Huh! remarked the clerk with the paper. I'll bet you didn't read your marriage license that carefully.

Maybe not, was the reply, but ever since I signed that I'm reading everything.

The Majority Model

"Yes, my friends," said the theological lecturer, "some admire Moses, who instituted the old law, some, Paul, who spread the new. But after all, which character in the Bible had the largest following?" As he paused, a voice from the back bench shouted, "Ananias!"

Among Us Girls

Is your boy friend a lady killer?
I'll say he is—he starves 'em to death.

A Difference of Idea

This one concerns a certain Scottish professor, named Kerr. One day, when he was out with a friend in the country, a bird flew in front of them and the friend queried the species.

The professor said it was a woodcock. The friend doubted it and said, "Oh! that's not my idea of a woodcock."

"No!" said Kerr, "but it's God's idea of a woodcock!"
