PERSONALS

Miss Helen Stevenson, 19th and Bellevue, underwent a painful operation at North Vancouver Hospital last Monday, resulting from her unfortunate accident when she fell, breaking her arm. She is doing as well as can be expected.

Captain W. J. Kane, 1253 Marine Drive, has a peach tree which has already over two dozen peaches on it. The tree came from Japan, having been given Captain Kane by the captain of one of the Blue Funnel liners.

Municipal Engineer James Duncan is back at duty after an absence of some weeks due to sickness.

Miss Strachan of Calgary, Alberta, is a guest at the Fortune Cup Inn.

Mrs. Grigor, 18th and Fulton, has purchased Mrs. Fitzgerald's house on Keith Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin MacLean, 19th and Marine, have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. John Russell of Point Grey.

Mrs. M. M. Odium of Vancouver, has rented the Gray house at 13th and Waterfront.

P. Philip, deputy minister of public works, and W. A. McKenzie, acting minister of public works, met Reeve Leyland here last Tuesday and looked over the new Capilano bridge.

Ferries No. 5 and 6 have both passed their annual inspection at the hands of the department of marine and fisheries.

Mrs. Jack Bell of Vancouver, who has been spending some months in California, is at her summer home in Caulfeild.

Alex. Harvey, who is connected with the Hudson Bay Co.'s store in Vancouver, has been promoted to a higher position in the company's new store at Winnipeg.

The Ambleside Fish and Chip Shop at 1429 Marine Drive, will open only on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays until further notice.

Pheasants are becoming increasingly in evidence around the district. In a number of instances they have been working havoc in West Vancouver gardens.

Mrs. J. C. Brown of Point Grey is a guest at the Fortune Cup Inn.

Mrs. Sutton and Miss Power of Vancouver, have taken the house at 2444 Bellevue and have moved in.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Cameron who have been away in Eastern Canada, have returned to their home in Caulfeild.

Mr. and Mrs. W. King of Vancouver, have moved into 2440 Bellevue.

Mrs. T. W. Carlile with her daughter of Bevan, Vancouver Island, is visiting her parents Captain and Mrs. P. H. Johnson, 18th and Fulton.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy of Vancouver, have taken the Smith house at 16th and Fulton.

Constable and Mrs. George Shepherd, 15th and Duchess, have taken the house of Rev. C. B. Clarke at 16th and Fulton.

Mrs. A. E. Lock has taken the Graham house at 2442 Lawson Ave.

Mrs. Colin MacLean was guest soloist at the Women's Canadian Club this week.

Mrs. James Tait is expected shortly to take up residence again at her home at 29th Street.

Ford Breckenridge, Radcliff Ave., is away on a business trip to the Interior.

R. W. Pyne, 13th and Clyde, has recently received from the Old Country a very fine grandfather's clock. It is over two hundred years old and was the property of his grandfather, who recently passed away.

A girl was born on Monday at the Vancouver General Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gilman of the Imperial Gas and Oil Station here.

Last Saturday afternoon on the Inglewood School grounds, the West Vancouver Second division soccer team beat the Vancouver Shamrocks in the second round of the provincial cup by a score of 4 to 1. This is the first game lost by this Vancouver team, who had previously defeated the West Van. team 4 goals to 2 in the Mainland Cup game. They have, however, protested Saturday's game, and as a result it is to be replayed tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 1:30 on the Cambie Street grounds. The boys ask for the support of local residents at the game to which they are certainly entitled in view of the splendid showing they have made this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Sorensen, who have a summer home at West Bay, have returned to Vancouver from Los Angeles, where they have been spending the winter. Their son, Clarence, with three other student friends from Pomona College, are motoring up from Los Angeles for the Easter holidays.

Miss Phyllis Clifford is expected to return shortly to her home in West Bay from California, where she has been spending the winter.

The Salvation Army give every patient in Shaughnessy Hospital two eggs every Easter-tide with a text inscribed on the eggs. This year some West Vancouver residents are looking after one of the wards in this respect for the Salvation Army.
