Hughes: "Not always. I prefer a man who yells at me to one who throws bricks."

The child had been greatly impressed by her first experience in Sunday school. She pressed her hands to her breast, and said solemnly to her sister, two years older:

On Tuesday evening the last of the indoor meetings of the Trail Rangers was held. It took the form dear to the average boy of a feed on wieners and beans and buns. The boys were their own caterers and cooks and greatly enjoyed the job. After supper a debate was held on the very important topic as to who is the most use to society the thin or the fat man. It was keenly discussed and so close that the judges, Messrs. Hamilton and Lennox gave the decision to the fat man by one point. So he has not much to boast of. The indoor meetings of the Trail Rangers have closed for the season.
A baseball club has been formed and will meet for practice on Thursday evenings at 5:30.

A special meeting of the Literary
