"If I stood on my head all the blood would flow to it, now would it not?"
"Yes."
"Then how is it that when I'm standing on my feet it does not rush down to them?"
"Because your feet aren't empty."

FAIRYLAND GOLF COURSE OPENED

Fairyland Miniature Golf Course was formally declared open by Mayor Morden in North Vancouver on Saturday evening. An attendance of over sixteen hundred people passed through the doors to see and play on one of the most up-to-date and picturesque miniature golf courses in British Columbia. A very interesting game was played by Ex-Mayor L. D. Taylor of Vancouver and Mayor Morden of North Vancouver, for a silver cup presented by the management and supplied by E. J. Snell, jeweller of Vancouver, B. C. Ex-Mayor Taylor came out at the short end, giving the victory to Mayor Morden. A very enjoyable evening was spent by everyone. An orchestra was in attendance and a lunch counter under the management of "Chic" Chamberlain. Brief addresses were made by Reeve Leyland, Ex-Mayor Taylor, Mayor Morden and Geo. Fowler. Congratulations were given by all to the President, Mr. Roberts, for giving to the North Shore a miniature golf course to be proud of.

Teacher: "Johnny, what is steam?"
Johnny: "Water crazy with the heat."

ROBERTS—LAWRENCE

St. Stephen's Church with its decorations of michelmas daisies and autumn foliage was recently the setting for the marriage of Miss Violette Lawrence and Mr. Dudley Roberts, with Rev. Harding Priest officiating at the ceremony. Escorted up the aisle by her father, Captain A. S. Lawrence, the bride was wearing a becoming gown of eggshell satin fashioned on long graceful lines, with a cap of old Limerick lace which also fashioned the close-fitting cap, from which her wedding veil was caught with a chaplet of orange blossoms. She carried a sheaf of Ophelia rose-buds. As matron of honor, Mrs. A. H. Parson had chosen rose flat crepe for her pretty frock, with hat in blending colors, and she carried a sheaf of Christian Chrysanthemums, with fern. There were three bridesmaids, Miss Joyce Herrin, Miss Jean Watson and Miss Molly Humphreys from Victoria, cousin of the bride. The two former were dressed in blue tulle, fashioned on the long lines, with picture hats in matching tones. Their flowers were white carnations and pink chrysanthemums. Carrying a sheaf of Christian chrysanthemums, Miss Molly Humphreys was dressed in blue flat-crepe, also fashioned on the long lines with close fitting hat in corresponding color. The nuptial music was played by Mr. L. Grout. A reception was held at the home of the bride after the ceremony. The bride and groom received the guests assisted by the bride's mother, Mrs. A. T. Lawrence, who was dressed in wisteria lace, with corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother, Mrs. Charles Roberts also assisted, wearing a becoming gown of black, also with corsage of pink carnations. The room was prettily decorated in the color scheme of lavender and primrose. The bride's table was lovely with its centre of a three-tier wedding cake, with tulle, candles and flowers in lavender and yellow, surrounding. Miss Louise Stipp from Seattle, and Mrs. R. Lawrence, presided at the urns, while Mrs. A. J. Humphreys from Victoria, cut the ices. Rev. Harding Priest acted as toastmaster. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Roberts left for Victoria for their honeymoon, the bride wearing black broadcloth with fox trimmings, also blue crepe de chene dress and hat to match. They will later make their home at 19th and Bellevue, West Vancouver.

Useful Recipes

Preserved Quinces
1 lb. quinces
2 1/2 cups water
1 lb. sugar
Whole cloves
Pare, quarter and core quinces. Put in to steam while preparing the syrup. Make a syrup of 2 1/2 cups water, 1 lb. sugar and 3 or 4 whole cloves to each pound of fruit. Now put the quinces in syrup and cook until red. Then bottle.

Taffy
2 cups brown sugar
1 cup boiling water
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 tablespoon butter
Flavoring
Boil all together for 30 minutes or until it hardens

Chocolate Caramel
2 cups brown sugar
1 cup molasses
1 cup grated chocolate
1 tablespoon flour
1 cup boiled milk
Butter, size of egg.
Mix together flour, sugar and grated chocolate. Add molasses and boiled milk. Boil together for 30 minutes then add the butter. Boil for another 30 minutes or more. Pour on flat tins to cool. Cut in squares.

Quince Jelly
15 lbs. quinces
Water
Cloves
Sugar
Wash and stem quinces. Cut up and put in preserving kettle, peelings, cores and all. Cover with cold water and add 6 whole cloves. Cook until soft. Turn into jelly bag and strain. Measure juice into preserving kettle. Take an equal quantity of sugar and warm it in oven. Boil juice 15 to 20 minutes, then add the hot sugar. Stir until sugar is dissolved, removing any scum. Boil hard for 5 or 10 minutes, then pour into hot glasses which have been sterilized.

Customer (in drug store): "I want a little pink tablet."
Druggist: "What's your trouble?"
Customer: "I want to write a letter."
"He was a man who had indeed suffered much," says a country paper, in a short obituary notice, "he had been a subscriber to this paper since its first number."
