Letting your hair grow?

If you are one of the many who are wearing a longer bob, keep it neat. Nothing looks so untidy as straight ends, and it is quite unnecessary when you can have the ends of your hair permanently curled or in the very fashionable roll which needs no pins, for as little as $3.50.

"I'm sure he's a waiter, Marie."

"Why do you say so?"
"Because, when I asked him whether I could always rely upon him, he said he'd stick to me through thick and clear."

The Wrong "Jock."

There was an outburst of hilarity from the kitchen, and the mistress paid a visit to that quarter to administer a mild reproof. "I see," she said to the maid, "you are fond of jocular-ity."

"Oh, no, ma'am," said the blushing girl, "you've got the wrong name. It's Jock McPherson."

United Church

Minister, E. A. Henry, D.D.

Sunday, November 29th, 1931.

10 a.m.—Sunday School.
11:15 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. —
Public Worship.

Dr. Henry will be in the pulpit morning and evening.
Morning topic: "Fragments given to God."
Evening topic, "Christian Life a Song."

The big event of the coming week is the Annual Bazaar. This annual sale of work has always been an outstanding feature of the Women's Association.

It takes place on Tuesday next December 1st, and will be officially opened at 2 o'clock by Mrs. T. A. Spencer.

It is hoped that as many as possible will be present at the opening hour to welcome the guest of the afternoon and to give the sale that impetus at the beginning that means so much.

Christmas presents will be there in variety, including some delightful cutwork, the more practical aprons and handkerchiefs. The Home-cooking stall expects to clear itself rapidly as usual while the candy is to be even better and more plentiful than ever. The children, too, are being remembered this year and a giant tree is prepared for them. In the lower halls down stairs visitors will be invited to test their skill in many ways both amusing and clever.

Everybody is invited to come and not only make the day a huge financial success which the church needs very much at present, but a social success as well. The sale will be open both afternoon and evening.

In view of the need of preparing the hall for the sale on Tuesday the Y.P.S. will meet on Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Cromar Bruce, 2131 Marine Drive. It has been decided to use it as a "Question Night."

As all the rooms will be in use there will be no meeting of the Trail Rangers on Tuesday night.

The C.G.I.T. meet as usual on Friday at 7 p.m.

Keep ever in mind the dates that lie ahead.
December 4th—The West Vancouver Orchestra which is very kindly sharing their proceeds with our Social Welfare and Relief Committee.
December 12—The Musical play "Secrets" for our Relief work. It will be given in the auditorium.

Advance notice is given of the "White Gifts" Xmas service on Sunday, December 20th, in connection with the morning gathering. Of this more anon.

Pin Wheels

Put 2 teaspoons soda and 4 teaspoons cream of tartar into 1 quart of flour. Sift twice. Add 2 large tablespoons lard and butter mixed, and enough milk to make a dough easily rolled. Roll about 1 inch thick, spread with a little melted butter, 1 cup of currants and sprinkle over a little sugar.

Roll up into a round loaf, cut into slices about 1 inch thick. Bake in moderate oven. This recipe without the currants, makes an excellent biscuit recipe

CANON SOVEREIGN AD-

DRESSES ST. STEPHEN'S MEN

Canon Sovereign addressed a large gathering of men in St.
Stephen's Parish Hall on Tuesday night under the auspices of the men of the Church Committee. His general topic was the opportunities presented to men in the church toward building
the character of the younger citizens. Speaking enthusiastically of the future of West Vancouver he stressed the importance of the kind of citizens developed. He appealed for boys and girls to be helped in such a way as to make them capable of the opportunity ahead. West Vancouver's future lay not only in the development of Hollyburn Ridge but in the integrity of her citizens.

Canon Sovereign dealt with the laudable work of service clubs under the headings of
1. Friendliness
2. The Common Meal Together.

3. Service for others.
He took these and applied
them to the parish life, appealing specially for adequate care of the boys and the supreme need of "playing with them" and also the example of honesty and the value of regular church attendance to stimulate ideals and the power to attain them.
Christian ideals in business, politics and civic affairs was given considerable thought.
