I. O. D. E.

The monthly meeting of the Duncan Lawson Chapter, I. O. D. E. was held on Monday, Sept. 14th, at the home of Mrs. A. Eastman, West Bay, with the Regent, Mrs. Hayes, in the chair and 22 members present. After the formal opening a silent vote of sympathy to Mrs. Stainsby, who recently lost her mother, was held. The minutes of the last meeting were read and reports of the different committees heard, those of the Garden Party and Alexandra Rose Day Fund being particularly successful.

Nominations for vacant offices were filled as follows: First vice-president, Mrs. P. Wait; educational secretary, Mrs. Crawford, and representative of League of Nations, Mrs. Gourlay.

It was with regret that a letter of resignation from Mrs. D. Morgan was accepted.

The West Vancouver Community Players are producing the mystery play "The Thirteenth Chair" on the evenings of Oct. 20th and 21st, and it was moved that the chapter take care of all business in connection with same, the proceeds to be used for welfare work or other activities of the chapter.

A new member, Mrs. W. McLaren, was nominated and will be received at the next meeting.

It was decided to hold the Annual Halloween dance on Friday, the 13th of Nov. and to make it a hard time dance in place of the usual masquerade.

Tea was served by the hostess and after singing the national anthem, the meeting adjourned.

Arrangements for the distribution of the prize money offered by the chapter to the most successful students were left in the hands of Mrs. Crawford.

The next monthly meeting will be held on Monday, the 12th of October, at the home of Mrs. Elgar.

PORTO RICO

When the United States took control of Porto Rico a little over twenty-five years ago, there was scarcely one good school on the island. Today there are twenty-five hundred. Children understand Spanish and English with equal ease. The girls are also taught embroidery and lace making.

Twenty-five years ago nine out of ten of the native laborers suffered from hookworm. A United States army surgeon has done so much to conquer the disease that his methods are being adopted in other tropical countries.

The sugar crop of Porto Rico is worth $100,000,000 a year. Sugar is grown along the coast, tobacco in the foothills and coffee in the mountains. $3,000,000 worth of fruit is shipped annually. Pineapples and grapefruit are large and delicious. A favorite drink known as "pinafria" is a tall glass filled with ripe pineapple juice and cracked ice.

SOCKEYE RUNS UP TO EXPECTATIONS

British Columbia's pack of canned salmon totalled 313,025 cases, up to August 1, as compared with an average pack of 499,251 cases in the corresponding periods in the past five years. Market conditions this year, of course, have not been such as to encourage efforts toward large production and it is interesting to note that the number of salmon canneries licensed in British Columbia is only 35 as against 59 which held licenses in 1930.

Obviously, the proper method of pack comparison in the case of the several varieties of salmon, taken separately, is to compare current pack with the output in the brood years, that is, in the years in which the parent fish deposit the eggs producing the present runs. In the case of sockeye, the most valuable of the five species of British Columbia salmon, the pack to August 1 was 213,044 cases as compared with 169,700 cases and 214,611 cases, respectively, in 1928 and 1927, the two years which produced the 1931 return. It will be seen, therefore, that this year's sockeye run has so far developed along the lines to be expected from the brood years. So far as the other varieties of salmon are concerned, it is not expected that there will be intensive fishing effort directed to their capture. The depressed conditions in the world market, which have resulted in a considerable quantity of the 1930 pack being held over, make intensive fishing effort unlikely. As a matter of fact, unless market conditions change materially in the near future, the pack of such fish as pinks and chums in British Columbia will be small.

"Doctah," asked a lady of color, "Ah's come to see if yo' am going to order Rastus one of dem mustard plasters ag'in today?"

"I think perhaps he had better have one more," answered the medico.

"Well, he says to ax yo' kin he have a slice o' ham wit it, 'count of it's a mighty powerful perscription to take alone."
