Local and Personal

There is at the police office in the Municipal Hall an assortment of clothes, shoes, etc., which will be distributed to any needing them who apply there. They have been gathered and placed there by the Duncan Lawson Chapter, I.O.D.E.

A very unusual accident occurred on Thursday evening, the 26th ultimo, when T. Garrow, while driving his car along Marine Drive just east of Fisherman's Cove, collided with a horse which was wandering on the roadway. The hood and windshield of the car were smashed, and the front of the body bent. The horse was so badly injured that it had to be shot, but fortunately, the occupants of the car escaped without injury.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Boyd, 2111 Esquimalt Ave., left at the beginning of the week for Scotland, where they expect to take up residence.

C. Messenger of the Hollyburn Block, 16th and Marine Drive, has purchased acreage at the corner of 23rd and Wentworth Ave.

Mrs. J. E. Condon, 18th and Esquimalt Ave., has returned after spending the week-end with her mother at Woodfibre, B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Caddy and family, who have been living at 1267 Haywood Ave., moved on Monday into a house at 1437 Lawson Ave.

Mr. Waters, 13th and Marine Drive, has moved to Vancouver.

H. L. Scrivener, 28th and Waterfront, is confined to his home through sickness.

Miss A. J. Dauphinee, who has been residing for the past few months in Vancouver, is again occupying her home at 2878 Bellevue Ave.

It is only three weeks to Christmas. Those who intend to give their photos to their friends for a Christmas present should arrange for a sitting now in the King Studio, as the time is growing very short.

A small party is now engaged in survey work for the British Pacific Properties Limited on the Hollyburn upper level lands recently purchased by the company from the municipality. It is understood that this survey is preliminary to the actual work of developing the property.

Mrs. A. L. Stevenson of Victoria, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Jackman, 22nd and Palmerston Ave.

Sands—Summerfield

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Summerfield, 2235 Mathers Ave., announce the marriage of their only daughter, Edna Mary, to Robert Fitzgerald, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Sands of Rennera, Auckland, New Zealand, on Saturday, 28th November, 1931. (News by cable.)

DUNDARAVE LADIES CHOIR

The Dundarave Ladies Choir would like to correct the error made in stating that their concert to be held in January will take place on the 8th. The concert will be held in the High School Auditorium on Saturday, January 9th.

The members of the Dundarave Ladies Choir are reminded that the next rehearsal will be held at the Canadian Legion Hall on Tuesday evening.

West Vancouver has already received much advertising as a result of the Hollyburn Lands deal. It is reported that one Toronto daily featured the news with big headlines across the top of their front page. It is evident that in Eastern Canada it is considered an event of considerable importance to Canada, and that development here will be followed closely in eastern financial circles.

The West Vancouver Teachers' Badminton Club, playing last Monday evening in the Inglewood School auditorium, defeated the Shaughnessy Hospital team by a score of 9 to 7.

E. Busst and his brother, Alfred, who have been away at Rock Creek, B. C. for the past four months, have returned to their home in Dundarave.

David Dewar and his two sons who have been in the Peace River district since the spring, returned this week to their home at 22nd and Bellevue. They came all the way by auto, and while there had been no frost in the Peace when they left, the weather was cold in Edmonton and still colder in Calgary. Crossing the mountains they ran into a foot and a half of snow.

The West Vancouver Junior Alliance soccer team suffered defeat last Saturday afternoon at the hands of the Hastings Athletics, the score being 1 goal to two. The match was played at Ambleside Park.

Mrs. C. G. Henshaw of Caulfeild has taken up residence at the Hotel Georgia for the winter months.

Mrs. G. E. Greenway and children of Swift Current have arrived here and are the guests of Mrs. Greenway's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Glean, 23rd and Marine Drive.

You enjoyed the Choral Concert the other evening! It was a musical treat. Remember they have generously offered to give a concert on January 18th next, proceeds for the Welfare Fund of the West Vancouver Churches. Keep the date in mind.

Captain C. J. Archer, who has been confined to his home for the past ten days through sickness, expects to return to business at the end of the week.

Miss C. Dowal is now in charge of Blair's Wood & Coal Office at 1464 Marine Drive.
