Mr. Gorlich came before the council in regard to his request for a street light and also to call attention to flood damage to the road caused by the recent heavy storm. He was informed that no action could be expected in regard to light, his property being outside the light area. The matter of the road was referred to the chairman of the board of works with power to act.

The policieman was interrogating a householder. "You say a rug was stolen from your hall," he said. "Can you give a description of it?"

"It was one of those reversible rugs—red on one side and green on the other."

"Yes," said Robert, takin notes rapidly, "and which watthe red side?"

A Compromise
Puzzled Mistress to (housemaid applicant): Your late employer has worded this reference in such a way that I really can't tell whether you were unsatisfactory or not.
Applicant: There now! She

THE BURNING BUSH By Sudabar

By Sudabar
Chang Hseuh-Liang, the fugitive Manchurian governor, is in a peck of trouble, not so much from the Japanese, though that is bad enough, but for very complicated marital reasons. It appears that he refused to accept from General Honjo 400 trunks of goods which apparently were largely filled with the winter finery of his numerous mothersin-law. One mother-in-law is supposed to be enough for any man, and what Chang is enduring from a few score of such relations deprived of the latest in man, and what Chang is endur-ing from a few score of such re-lations deprived of the latest in Chinese finery is just too ter-rible to think about. Imagine, if you can, the howls of wrath in his yamen, and the machine-gun rapid fire of Chinese from the enraged ladies. It will be too much even for the family

I referred a few weeks ago to the many useless cogitations of scientists. Recently a professor of a celebrated American university predicted that before 2040 A.D. man may travel to the moon in about six days. He has evidently spent so me thought on the subject, for he goes on to explain the kind of vehicle required for the feat. The chief futility of the idea, which does not appear to hove occurred to him, is of course, that he makes no allowance for how those who take the journey are going to get back to earth, and therefore the world would never be the wiser for any of their discoveries. Some one might possibly be found willing to take the trip even under these circumstances, but there are many other much cheaper ways of getting rid of such a fool than providing him with an expensive kind of rocket apparatus.

* * * * * Ghandi is going back to India after having proved himself to Ghandi is going back to India after having proved himself to be just another type of Indian fakir by going round in an English autumn in a loin cloth. He prophesies that he is going back to a hell in India, which is probably quite true, but not in the way he thinks. He, not India, is due for a hot time. The twisted mind of a Bengali, particularly when damned by a European education, is capable of ideas inconceivable to the Occidental mind. Passive resistance, which is only a cowardly way of taking advantage of the lack of a strong hand, will cease with the first few rifle shots. It is high time Ghandi was banished to a penal settlement, and it is entirely likely that with the present British Government in power that or execution will soon be his fate. A little show of force will prove that he is really no more than he has ever been, namely a windy nuisance. Ghandi is going back to India

Counsel: "You admit you entered the house by the back door at two o'clock in the morning. What business had you there at that time?"
Prisoner. "I thought it was my own house."
"Then why did you, when this lady approached, leap through the window, jump into the cistern and hide yourself?"
"I thought she was my wife."

"Mummie, why does Uncle John eat off his knife?" "Hush, dear," replied the mother. "Uncle John is rich enough to eat off the coal shovel if he prefers it.

Not What He Wanted

Not What He Wanted Reginald had called to take his fiancee out for the evening. "And what did your father say when you told him of our engagement?" asked the gallant swain,

"Guess," the girl replied.
Reginald gave a few seconds thought to the matter and then said, "Give it up, dearie."
"Why that's just what he did say," exclaimed the girl, "How ever did you know?"

PLAYLET "SECRETS" SATURDAY 12th, IN INGLEWOOD AUDITORIUM

The playlet "Secrets," to be oduced in the Inglewood Audi-

The playlet "Secrets," to be produced in the Inglewood Auditorium on Saturday evening, December 12th, on behalf of local welfare work, is a simple Christmassy story. Containing as it does a real live Father Christmas in the person of Charles Baldwin and a real "Bobby," personified by Wm. Harker, carol singers in their natural setting, campfire scene and children dancing in delightful costume, no boy or girl should fail to see it.

The following is the dramatis personnae: Father Christmas, Charles Baldwin, Mr. O'Neil, Rupert Harrison; Nancy and Tommy O'Neil, Stella and Kenneth Cromar Bruce; Nurse, Erane Patterson; Policeman, Mm. Harker; Baby Brother, Peter Prentice; Nancy's chums, Joan Sheffield, Marjorie O'Donnell; Doreen Addy, Pat Stainsby; Jeanie Allan, Doreen Thomson; Norma Fellows, Betty Prentice; Betty Cuthbertson; Tommie's chums, Kenneth McNair, James Harker, Robert Sheffield, Ernest Harrison, Donald Howisson.

Jackson, Reid Mitchell Allen and Charles Forster.

Thanks to the courtesy of the School Board and Mr. Condon the schools band of some fifty instruments is to play during the intermissions under the baton of Mr. Jordan.

In staging the play every effort has been made to keep expenses down to the minimum and thanks to the willing assistance of Messrs. Arthur Douglas and J. E. Durbin splendid scenery has been built, virtually without cost. There will be no fewer than four complete changes of scene.

Tickets at 35 cents for adults and 15 cents for children have been selling exceptionally well, and there is every indication of a good attendance.

Caramel Pie
Put in a pan to boil 1 cup brown sugar and butter the size of an egg, then thin out with one cup hot water. Mix 1 tablespoon cornstarch, 1 teaspoon vanilla, yolks of 2 eggs with water and stir in. Have crust ready and pour filling in, using the whites of eggs on top.

Wheat Gridd'e Cakes

1 cake yeast 1 cup of milk, scalded and cooled

2 tablespoonfuls light brown sugar 1 cup lukewarm water 2 tablespoonfuls melted short-

2 tablespoonfuls melted shortening
2 cups sifted flour
2 eggs
1 teaspoonful salt Dissolve yeast and sugar in lukewarm liquid. Add shortening, the flour gradually, the eggs well beaten, and salt. Beat thoroughly until batter is smooth.
Cover and set aside for about one hour, in a warm place, free from draught, to rise. When light, stir well and bake on hot griddle. If wanted for overnight, use one-fourth cake of yeast and an extra half-teaspoonful salt. Cover and keep in a cool place.

Reinholt when asked why he was such a hard-boiled egg, replied; "Be-cause my wife always has me in hot water,"
