CONFUSED?

668-8943

Don't put off advertising in the Whitby Free Press Emporium simply because you find the advertising guidelines confusing. Don't miss out on our low advertising rates just because you have questions. Hopefully, the explanation below can clear up many of your questions - if not, do call 668-6111 and we'll be pleased to explain the Emporium Section to you personally.

If you:

are a private advertiser;

·have an article to sell; and, •have a specified asking price for your article then you can advertise under the Emporium sec-

Your ad will run each week until the article has been sold (maximum three months).

tion (see guidelines above for more details).

A minimum charge applies to each Emporium ad; $7.50 payable in advance before the first insertion of your ad.

If your article does NOT sell within three months, you pay only the minimum charge. It is unfortunate that no newspaper can guarantee your article will sell, but where else could you get three months advertising for only $7.50?

When your article sells, a commission is charged, based on the advertised price. Commission is: 5% up to $400; 2% of the balance over $400; LESS the minimum charge described above.

I have read the Emporium guidelines above and wish to have the following advertisement placed under this section of the Whitby Free Press.

(don't forget to include your phone number)

Exp. Date

I enclose $7.50 to cover the minimum charge.
