

Three seek NDP nomination

Don Stewart and Drummond White of Whitby and Jim Wiseman of Ajax will seek the nomination for New Democratic Party Ontario Riding Association at a meeting on May 30 to select a candidate for the next federal election, expected in the fall.

Stewart and Wiseman are teachers while White is a family counsellor.

Two "issue forums" have been planned before the nomination meeting to give riding association members a chance to meet prospective candidates.

The issue forums will be held at the Earl of Durham, Whitby, on Saturday, May 21, 6:30 p.m.; Rougehill Library, Pickering, on May 10, 7:30 p.m.; UAW Hall,

Ajax, on May 30, 7:30 p.m. Riding association president Bernie Emoff (839-8443) and secretary Bryce Jordan (668-5494) can provide further information.

Driver is convicted

A Whitby man who was convicted of two counts of criminal negligence in an accident that killed two teenage girls last February will be sentenced on June 17 in Whitby.

Sean LaRose, now living in Toronto, was found guilty of the charges in Whitby district court last week.

LaRose was driving a male friend and the two girls, Kathy LaRose, 17 of Port Perry and Rhonda Williamson, 17, of Uxbridge, to a party when the accident occurred.

LaRose's car hit a hydro pole at the intersection of Durham Rd. 23 and Hwy. 8, and rolled several times.

Both girls were killed. Judge Donald Lawson stayed impaired charges against LaRose who had more than two times the legal amount of alcohol in his system.
