Fairy Godmother's Closet in Brooklin offers free formal wear for teens April 30

BROOKLIN -- Need an outfit for graduation or prom but low on funds?

The Brooklin Optimist Club is hosting the Fairy Godmother's Closet to assist families struggling to afford formal wear for teens.

The event allows grades 8 and 12 students graduating this spring to borrow a dress or suit, as well as accessories and other items to complete their outfit, at no charge.

The Fairy Godmother's Closet will be held on Saturday, April 30 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Brooklin Community Centre and Library, 8 Vipond Rd. Call to arrange a fitting time. To donate items, contact Ethel Scullion at 905-410-0738 or e-mail Brooklinfgc@gmail.com.

BROOKLIN -- Susan McGregor, principal planner with the Town of Whitby, spoke to members of the local business community during a Java Jolt session hosted by the Whitby Chamber of Commerce at Lotus Home Interiors last month. This meeting's theme centred on the Town of Whitby's study to prepare a land use secondary plan and transportation master plan to prepare for future growth in Brooklin.
