

Town of Ajax Street Dedication

Street Name: Easton Court

Name of Veteran: Frederick Arthur John Easton      February 13, 1916-1983

Rank: Able Seaman, Torpedo Man

Ship Served: HMS Ajax

Date of Service on Ship: Feb.1938 to April 1943

Year of Visit/Dedication: June 2005

Veteran or Family Visit: Myra Jones, daughter

Veteran of the Battle of the River Plate: Yes      Died at Battle: No

Fred Easton lived in the small market town of Llanrwst, Conwy County, North Wales where he was very popular. He married Dorothy and had two daughters, Myra and Anita. Myra remembers her father receiving a hero's welcome when he returned home on leave after the Battle of the River Plate.

Both Fred and his wife Dorothy died in 1983, within 6 months of each other.