David Burtch

Notes

David Burtch was born in 1815. He was the son of Stephen and grandson of David, a native of England who went to the American colony about 1750 and died in Albany, now New York State. Stephen was born in Balltown, N.Y. State in 1767 and came to Canada in 1796, locating near Niagara, until 1813 when he moved to Brant County.

David, one of nine children, owned land in Mt. Pleasant. Lot 5 W. was originally given by Brant to John Earle, to Gideon Olmstead, to Solomon Olmstead, to David Miller to Stephen Burtch in 1814. This consisted of 92 acres. He also owned 172 acres at Burtch. It is this family that the Village of Burtch is named after, as David owned three corners of the Cockshutt Road at Burtch. After battling the forests of Brant County, David died in 1863.

The first home on the Mt. Pleasant farm was a log house near the Creek (once the Cecil James home in 1950's). Later a large brick home was built closer to the village of Mt. Pleasant ((Reinhardt home in 1950's). Stephen, one of David's six children, born in 1840, farmed the home place. He married Annie Houlding and Betty Birkett of Newport. When he retired, he built a home on his property (Harvey Coleman home in 1990's). They had five sons - Henry and Charles went to Kelowna, British Columbia in 1897. Herbert farmed in Oakland Township. Clarence went to Kelowna in 1914.

William stayed in this area. He married Emma Chattersson and lived on Lot 4 2nd RWMP (Pleasant Ridge Road) until his death in 1935. They had two daughters, Mabel and Mildred.

Brant County Book Biography Published 1883

DAVID BURTCH, farmer, Brantford Township, a native of this country, was born Nov. 23, 1815, and is a son of Stephen and grandson of David Burtch, a native of England, who went to the American colonies about the middle of the last century, and died at Albany, in what subsequently became the State of New York. Stephen Burtch, his sire, was born at Balltown, New York State, in 1767, and came to Canada in 1796, locating near Niagara until 1813, when he removed to Brant County. About the year 1807, he married Margaret Belingar, daughter of Jacob Belingar, a native of Germany, their union being blessed with nine children, viz., Lucy and William (deceased), Esther, David, Adelia, Ann, Mary (deceased), Charlotte, Susan and Jane. After battling the forests of Brant County for twenty years, this brave old pioneer was gathered to his fathers in 1833, at age 66, leaving behind him a record of good deeds done for emulation by his posterity. David Burtch, the subject of this biography, was twice married. His first wife was Anna Smith, daughter of Amos Smith, a native of New York State, to whom he was married June 20, 1835. The result of their marriage was six children, as follows: Daniel, born June 6, 1836; Jane, born Sept. 17, 1838, died May 24, 1867; Stephen, born Nov. 3, 1840; David, born Jan 15, 1842; Silas, born July 16, 1844, died Oct 6, 1845; Honikel, born Nov. 23, 1847. His wife dying June 1, 1856, he again married June 12, 1861, Nancy Ann Clarke, who is still living. Mr. Burtch is in independent circumstances, being the owner of a splendid farm of 172 1/2 acres, upon which he has resided since his birth, and 92 acres in Mt. Pleasant of excellent land in the Village of Mt. Pleasant, all of which is well stocked and under a superior state of cultivation. He has held the office of Justice of the Peace for the past few years, having received his appointment from the Dominion Government. He is a member of the Baptist Church. David Burtch, Jr. his son, married Lucretia Clark, daughter of William and Susan (Huffman) Clark, of Glanford. He resides on the farm with his father.

*For everything there is an appointed season,
And a time for everything
under heaven --
A time for sharing,
a time for caring,
A time for loving,
and a time for remembering.*

Order for The Solemnization of Matrimony

(At the time appointed for the Solemnization of Matrimony, the persons to be married, standing together, the man on the right and the woman on the left, the Minister shall say,)

The Introduction

Dearly beloved, we are gathered here in the presence of God to join together this man and this woman in Holy Matrimony; which is an honourable estate, ordained of God unto the fulfilling and perfecting of the love of man and woman in mutual honour and forbearance; and therefore it is not by any to be taken in hand lightly, or thoughtlessly, but reverently, discreetly, soberly, and in the fear of God.

Into which holy estate these two persons present come now to be joined.

Therefore if any man can show just cause, why they may not lawfully be joined together, let him now speak, or else hereafter for ever hold his peace.

(Then speaking to the persons that are to be married, the Minister shall say,)

I require and charge you both, before the great God the Searcher of all hearts, that if either of you know any impediment, why ye may not lawfully be joined together in Marriage, ye do now confess it. For be ye well assured that so many as are joined together otherwise than as God's Word doth allow, are not joined together by God; neither is their union blessed by him.

The Marriage

(If no impediment be alleged, then shall the Minister say unto the man,)

Stanley Fraser

Wilt thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honour and keep her, in sickness and in health? and, forsaking all other, keep thee only unto her, so long as ye both shall live?

(The man shall answer)

I will.

(Then shall the Minister say unto the woman,)

Mabel Burtch

Wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou love him, comfort him, honour and keep him, in sickness and in health? and, forsaking all other, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?

(The woman shall answer,)

I will.

(Then shall the Minister say,)

Who giveth this woman to be married to this man?

(Then shall they plight their troth to each other in this manner. The Minister shall cause the man with his right hand to take the woman by her right hand and to say after him as followeth,)

I, Stanley, take thee Mabel to be my wedded wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better, for worse; for richer, for poorer; in sickness and in health;
to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I plight thee my troth.

(Then shall they loose their bands; and the woman with her right hand taking the man by his right hand shall likewise say after the Minister,)

I, Mabel, take thee, Stanley, to be my wedded husband, to have and to hold from this day forward,
for better, for worse; for richer, for poorer; in sickness and in health;
to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I plight thee my troth.

(Then they shall again loose their hands; and the man shall give to the woman a ring, pulling it upon the third finger of her left hand; and holding it there, shall say after the Minister,)

This ring I give thee in token of the covenant made this day between us:
In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

(Then may the man and the woman kneel down; but the People shall remain standing. And the Minister shall say,)

Let us pray.

O Eternal God, Creator and Preserver of all mankind, giver of all spiritual grace, the author of everlasting life: Send thy blessing upon these thy servants, this man and this woman, whom we bless in thy name; that, living faithfully together, they may surely perform and keep the vow and covenant betwixt them made; and may ever remain in perfect love and peace together, and live according to thy law; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Then shall the Minister join their right hands together, and say,)

Those whom God hath joined together let not man put asunder.

(Then shall the Minister speak unto the People,)

Forasmuch as Stanley Fraser and Mabel Burtch

have consented together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and thereto have given and pledged their troth either to other, and have declared the same by giving and receiving of a ring, and by joining of hands; I pronounce that they be man and wife together. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

(And the Minister shall add this Blessing—or continue as on the next page,)

The Lord bless you, and keep you: the Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you: the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace. Amen.

The Blessing of the Marriage

(While the marriage of the man and the woman needs nothing further to make it a valid marriage, it is desirable that the sons and daughters of the Church should seek further the divine blessing upon their union in the manner following.)

(This Psalm following shall be sung or said.)

Psalm 121

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.
He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.
Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.
The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.
The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.
The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

(Or this Psalm.)

Psalm 37: 3-7

Trust in the Lord, and do good: so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.
Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.
Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.
And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.
Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him.

(The Psalm ended, the Minister standing, if it be convenient, at the Lord's Table, shall say,)

Let us pray.

The History of the Wharfedale, from the earliest times to the present day, is a subject of great interest and importance, and one which has attracted the attention of many of our most distinguished writers and historians.

The Wharfedale, which is one of the most fertile and beautiful of our valleys, has been the scene of many of our most important events, and has produced many of our most distinguished statesmen and warriors.

The history of the Wharfedale, therefore, is a subject of great interest and importance, and one which has attracted the attention of many of our most distinguished writers and historians.

THE HISTORY OF THE WHARFEDALE

Minister : Lord, have mercy upon us.

People : Christ, have mercy upon us.

Minister : Lord, have mercy upon us.

Minister : O Lord, save thy servant, and thy handmaid ;

People : Who put their trust in thee.

Minister : O Lord, send them help from thy holy place ;

People : And evermore defend them.

(And the Minister shall continue as followeth.)

O God, the Author and Giver of all good things, who hast consecrated this estate of Marriage, and made it holy : Let thy blessing, we beseech thee, descend and rest upon these thy servants, that they may dwell together in unity and love all the days of their life. Grant unto them health, prosperity, and peace. And above all things, we pray thee to enrich their souls with thy heavenly grace, that they may obey and serve thee, walking in the steps of Jesus Christ thy Son ; that finally when the joys and sorrows, and all the good and evil of this passing world are ended, they may inherit thy promises and be made partakers of eternal peace ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(And all shall say together the Lord's Prayer.)

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name ; Thy kingdom come ; Thy will be done ; In earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; but deliver us from evil ; For thine is the kingdom, The power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

(Then shall the Minister say this Blessing over the man and the woman,)

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Pour upon you the riches of his grace, sanctify and bless you, that ye may please him both in body and soul, and live together in holy love unto your lives' end.
Amen.

(And he shall dismiss those that are gathered together with this Blessing,)

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord ; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be amongst you and remain with you always. Amen

I take this early date
To extend congratulations
That your name was on the "slate"
When the stork made visitations
I'm sure your joy's complete
And well indeed it may be
For there's nothing half so sweet
As a Blessed Little Baby.

"O HARA SAN"

Argument

G. Kashi, a young student of noble birth, falls in love with O Hara San, the only child of a Samurai, Kanaya. Finding his love returned he seeks her hand in marriage. Reluctantly her father consents on condition that the wedding takes place in a year's time. G. Kashi leaves Japan to study in America and remains almost a year, meanwhile, Prince Nashimoto seeks O Hara's hand and Kanaya is agreeable if G. Kashi does not return within the year. Just as O Hara has made tearful preparations to wed the old Prince her lover arrives at the last moment and all ends happily.
