Our Wedding Day

*Our Wedding Day!
The Soul's noontide!
In these rare words
at watchful rest,
What sweet melodious
meanings hide!
Like birds within one
balmy nest,
Each quivering with
an impulse strong,
Gild all heaven and
earth with song.*

Paul Hamilton Hayne.

Wedding Bells

Wedding bells so
    gaily pealing
Echo through the country side-
    A tender story they are telling
A tale as old as the world is wide,
    A tale of love that's deep and lasting
Whether days be dark or bright-
    A love that shines upon life's pathway
Like a steadfast beacon light.

Anonymous.

*As when from
separate stars two beams
Unite to form one
tender ray;
As when two sweet
but shadowy dreams
Explain each other
in the day:
So may these two
dear hearts, one light
Emit, and each
interpret each.
Let an angel come
and dwell to-day
In this dear double heart, and teach.*

Sidney Lanier.

From this hour
the summer rose Sweeter breathes to
charm us;
From this hour the winter snows
Lighter fall to harm us.
Fair or foul-
on land or sea-
Come the wind or
weather,
Best and worst,
whate'er they be
We shall share
together.

Winthrop Praed.

The Bridal Prayer

*They stand alone the newly wed
With chastened voice and reverent head!*

*One flesh the twain and one prayer
Ascending from the altar there.*

*Tender and broken is each word
Upon the sacred stillness heard;
Winged with one faith to reach the throne*

And bring a father's blessing down

*Oh! sweetest hour for human pair,
When love is sanctified by prayer,
And when, in answer from the skies,
God sends again earths Paradise*

Rankin.

Notes for HUGH DERMID MACLACHLAN:
Home of Hugh MacLachlan, Mt. Pleasant

In 1801, the 112 acre farm at Lot 8 IREMP (1st Range East of Mt. Pleasant) was leased by Captain Joseph Brant, agent for Six Nations, to Gideon Olmstead for the term of 999 years.

The second owner was Henry Ellis (died 1888). He previously owned a house across the Mill Road that was burned during the War of 1812-14, in 1814. Henry rebuilt here. Wallace Ellis, Henry's son lived here for a time. Then Allan Ellis Henry's son, moved the house in from the Mill Road and gave it a half turn to put the fireplace on the west wall of the center room. It was purchased by John Randall Ellis who was born on the farm September 11, 1810. A.W., son of Allin Ellis farmed here after his father.

In 1869, Dermid MacDermid purchased the farm. His wife was Annabella Dawson. They had two sons and daughters. He farmed here until 1908, then his son Alex, until 1922, when he died.

Then the farm was purchased by Alexander MacLachlan, who had married Elizabeth McDiarmid. In 1922 the price of the farm was $7,000.00. Livestock etc, was $2,000.00. Alexander MacLachlan died in 1928, his wife in 1930.

Since 1928 the farm was owned by his son Hugh, born 1900 in Lambton County, Inniskillin. He married Mildred Chatterson Burtch, born 1910, in 1938. They farmed here until their death in 1991.

Their daughter Helen inherited the farm, and sold it to Kenneth Guest in 1996. The house was severed from the farm and sold to William Krus.

When the house was built, the fireplace sat on what is now the road facing south. It was later moved north and west and given a half turn making the fireplace on the west end. It consisted of a living room and two small bedrooms and an upstairs. At that time a cellar was dug under the whole house and a dining room kitchen, and second bedroom west and another above now five bedrooms. In 1925 a dormer and windows were added upstairs and the fireplace was rebuilt with a new chimney was added

Love wants to know three things; how is it with their loved one now? Love wants to know what we've lost and thirdly, with this in mind, what would their beloved say to them now?

We have come to honour and complete the earthly life of Hugh Drmid MacLachlan; a life that has ended as we know it on earth. We come with many emotions - sadness, grief, loss, disbelief and maybe relief that his suffering is over. We come with many emotions, but, hopefully, we come also with faith. Faith in the love of God; faith in eternal life. Faith that knows and is comforted in the knowledge that Hugh MacLachlan, a good man, is no longer ailing and has entered into the joy of his eternity. Love wants to know how it is now for Hugh. He is with God. He has received the divine embrace.

Hopefully, we come with faith - but still there is the loss. There are the memories and love wants to know what we have lost. So let us remember a little together.

Hugh was born at the beginning of our century, May 12, 1900 in Wyoming, Ontario. After a severe asthma attack, at the age of three, the family moved to Mount Pleasant, believing the climate and air to be better for him. In 1938, being almost a confirmed bachelor, Hugh married Mildred Burtch. As the saying goes "they got on famously". So famously that in time a daughter, Helen, graced their lives.

Now as everyone knows, Hugh was a farmer; and farming and asthma don't mix. Yet Hugh milked cows from 1917 to 1970 (53 years). Mildred's nursing training kept Hugh alive as his condition worsened over the years.

Hugh was also a public servant. He cherished his years on Brantford Township Council from 1956 - 1970, including four years as a Reeve.

Now Hugh was a "die hard" liberal and though a generally fun loving, easy going guy, the liberal in him could be fiesty, and was.

Hugh loved horses, and when he discovered that I loved horses too, well then all the horse photos and horse stories filled our visits.

Perhaps, most of all, Hugh should be remembered for his ready sense of humour, which dispelled many a conflict, and his insistence that "we must enjoy life as we go along". Now this attitude got him into trouble with the Methodists, and you know, I never heard a good word from him about them. Unbowed, Hugh continued to emphasize that we must enjoy life as we go along. In fact on Wednesday, while visiting Hugh in hospital, when the end was obviously near, Hugh preached his sermon on this topic to me.

Let me say that the nursing staff were wonderful and were much appreciated by the family through the final ordeal.

Friends, the love of God is always near, always available in times of sorrow. For Jesus said, "let not your hearts be troubled; believe in God, believe also in me . . . I will not leave you desolate. I will come to you!!! God will come to all who mourn the death of Hugh Dermid MacLachlan, and God will use each and every one of us to comfort his family in their time of grief.

Jesus said "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you . . . Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid."

Hugh has entered into the joy of his eternity. Let us receive the Peace of Christ for our weary hearts at his passing, and let us rejoice with Hugh in a life well lived. Let us realize his wisdom for us now. For love wants to know what Hugh would say to us now.

Today we have come to honour and complete the earthly life of Mildred Chatterton MacLachlan, an amazing life that has ended as we know it on earth. We come with cross currents of thoughts and emotions. So sudden and yet somehow appropriate. It seems that some teams should not be separated. With her husband Hugh's death just 6 weeks ago, there is a fearful symmetry at work, a profound communion occurring. They are together again, as it should be. So today, we must rejoice for Mildred, but, still we grieve her passing. So, we come with many emotions, but, hopefully, we come also with faith. Faith in the love of God; faith in eternal life. Faith that knows and is comforted in the knowledge that Mildred MacLachlan, a good and devoted wife, mother, nurse is no longer ailing and has entered into the joy of her eternity. She is at rest at last with her beloved Hugh. Hopefully, we come with faith, but still there is the loss. There are the memories. So let us remember a little together.

First, everyone remembers Mildred! She was a 'fireball' of energy and ability that warmed many souls and scorched the odd tail feather.

Her amazing life began July the 4th, 1910 on the 'Back street of Mount Pleasant', called Pleasant Ridge Road. Born Mildred Burtch, she was 7 years younger than her sister, Mabel. Mildred enjoyed the opportunity to attend B.C.I. and went on to nurses training at the Brantford General Hospital, graduating in 1931. She excelled at Private Duty Nursing and invented her own form of 'total patient care'.

On June 18, 1938, she married Hugh MacLachlan. In 1943 a daughter, Helen, arrived - all 11 pounds. Mildred was still talking to me about the event just last week.

Mildred took about 12 years off, but then returned to nursing and her passion for helping others. Just a month ago, she attended the 60th anniversary of her graduating class.

Now Mildred was a very intelligent and talented person. She was a perfectionist to the core and when you add these traits to an energetic drivenness, the results can be, and were, amazing. Love and admiration, coming from people she nursed, was testimony to her unique gifts. Her garden, her sewing, her smocking, you name it - she excelled in it.

But, on the other hand - well when daughter, Helen, was sent out to pick peas, Mildred would follow her down the rows to make sure she didn't miss any. When the grand children came to visit, they were greeted first, with a list of chores, then came the kisses.

Mildred always gave instructions, whether you needed them or not. When I first came to Mount Pleasant, I received a 'phone call informing me that I needed to know the history of the place and she had written one; I could come and get it on condition that I returned it promptly. That was Mildred.

Historian, church choir member, soloist in operettas, seamstress, nurse, horticulturalist, mother, blue ribbon pickle maker, leader in W.I., devoted wife. Bidden or unbidden, Mildred would be at the door if someone was ill or injured. Bidden or unbidden, Mildred had a comment or a correction for every situation. Mildred will be remembered and missed because she always meant the best for everyone.
