Obituary copied from newspaper clipping kept by Inez Houlding (daughter). No newspaper name or date was noted on the clipping.

Another of Rapid City's pioneer citizens has passed to the great beyond in the person of Thomas Houlding, whose death occurred at Minnedosa Hospital on Saturday morning, to which institution he was taken but four days previously, following a stroke on the 11th inst. The deceased, who was in his eighty-third year, had been confined to his bed for two and a half years,

Mr. Houlding was a native of Brantford, Ont., and came west with his family in 1880, first spending a year at Portage la Prairie as a building contractor, and old-timers will recall that he built the original mill dam in town. Later he partnered with the late Mr. Hindson in the lumber business and afterwards opened a hardware store in which business he continued until moving to Saskatoon in 1905. At Saskatoon he again took up contracting and for a number of years met with marked prosperity in the growing western city. Four years ago he and Mrs. Houlding returned to Rapid City and since made their home with their daughter, Mrs. T. J. Butchart.

During the twenty odd years spent in business here Mr. Houlding became widely known and deeply respected by a large circle of friends. He was a prominent Baptist, being one of the early members of the local church and was a very active worker up to the time of his departure for the west. He was also a honorary member of the Masonic order.

Left to mourn his loss besides his wife are three sons and two daughters, W. W. and Charles E. of Saskatoon, Harold, of Portland, Ore., Mrs. Roy, of Dauphin, and Mrs. Buthart and C.M. Beattie. There were floral tributes from the local Masonic lodge, the Baptist church and the family.

THE WINNIPEG EV

PIONEER RESIDENT OF
RAPID CITY IS DEAD

(Special to The Tribune)

RAPID CITY, Sept. 18.—Another of Rapid City's pioneer settlers died on Sunday morning in the person of Mrs. Houlding, 73 years old, widow of the late Thomas Houlding. Mrs. Houlding was born at Oakland, Ont., and came west to Portage la Prairie with her husband and family in 1880. They continued west to Rapid City in 1882, where Mr. Houlding engaged in contracting work, the lumber business and later the hardware business, continuing in the latter until the family removed to Saskatoon 19 years ago. Five years ago Mr. and Mrs. Houlding returned to Rapid City to make their home with their daughter Mrs. T. J. Butchart. Mr. Houlding passing away last October, in his 83rd year. Mrs. Houlding was a Baptist, being a prominent member in the early life of the local church. She is survived by three sons and two daughters, W. W. and Charles E., of Saskatoon; Harold, of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Frank Roy, of Dauphin, and Mrs. T. J. Butchart, of Rapid City. The funeral took place on Monday, service being held at the Butchart home, conducted by the Baptist pastor, Rev. B. Gerdes. Interment was made in Rapid City cemetery.

Dear Helen,
Thanks for your informative letter of 9 December. Life sure sounds to be busy and full of excitement. I don't see where you will fit in work on a family tree, computer or not! Good Luck!

The impression I get from your initial listing is one of a certain confusion in our relationship to you. Perhaps we can clarify:

- 1 Generation: William Houlding and Betty Birkett
- 2 Generation: Ann Houlding & Steven Burch Thomas Houlding & Obedience McAllister
Emma Christenson + William David Burch
- 3 Generation: Mildred Burtch & Hugh MacLachlan Inez E. Houlding & J.F.R. (Frank) Roy with
- 4 Generation: Helen MacLachlan & Ralph Mulligan F.E. (Frank) Roy & Lily L. Radies

So we are pretty much shirt tail relatives I guess! Now to filling in your sheet.

Husband: Thomas Houlding
Born: May 05, 1842 in: Newport, Ontario (I suppose)
Married: in: Mount Pleasant, Ontario (I suppose)
Died: October 15, 1924 in: Minnedosa Hospital, Minnedosa, Manitoba

Mother: Betty Birkett
Previous Spouse: Sabina McAllister + Maria Merrill?

(Extract from History of Brant County, Ontario; Warner & Beers & Co., 1883, given to me by Mildred (Burtch) MacLachlan.)

WILLIAM HOULDING, farmer, Newport, was born Oct. 9, 1816, and is a son of Thomas, grandson of Thomas, and great-grandson of William Houlding, a native of Lancashire, England, who died in the land of his birth. The grandfather of our subject came to Canada in 1831, and settled in Brant County. He married Ann Draper, also a native of England, and had seven children, viz., Thomas, Ann, Betty, and William, who are living, and Jane and Henry, now dead; William Houlding, of whom this sketch is written, came to Canada from England in 1831, and married July 1st, 1848, Betty Birkett, daughter of William Birkett, of English descent. The children of this marriage number fourteen, as follows: Thomas, born May 5, 1842; William, born May 29, 1843; Ann, born June 14, 1845; Ellen, born Aug. 16, 1847; James, born Mar 15, 1849; Mary J., born March 15, 1851; Henry A., born Dec. 31, 1853, died June 24, 1864; Rachel and Rebecca, born April 8, 1855 (Rebecca died April 10, 1876, and Rachel, July 25, 1876); Isadora, born March 15, 1857; George, born Feb. 23, 1869; Charles D., born Feb. 24, 1861; John A., born July 27, 1865; Martha E., born March 31, 1867. Mr. Houlding owns a splendid farm of 160 acres on the Grand River, four miles below the City of Brantford, and is a prosperous farmer. He and his family belong to the Independent Church.

Later he partnered the late Mr. Hindson in the lumber business and afterwards opened a hardware store in which business he continued until re moving to Saskatoon in 1905. At Saskatoon he again took up contracting and for a number of years met with marked prosperity in the growing western city. Four years ago he and Mrs. Houlding returned to Rapid City and have since made their home with their daughter, Mrs. T. J. Butchart.

During the twenty odd years spent in business here Mr. Houlding became widely known and deeply respected by a large circle of friends. He was a prominent Baptist, being one of the early members of the local church and was a very active worker up to the time of his departure for the west. He was also a honorary member of the Masonic order.

Left to mourn his loss besides his wife are three sons and two daughters, W. W. and Charles E., of Saskatoon; Harold, of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Roy, of Dauphin, and Mrs. Butchart, of Rapid City.

Interment took place at Rapid City cemetery on Monday afternoon. Service was held at the Butchart home, conducted by the Baptist pastor, B. Gerdes, assisted by Rev. S. C. Wright. Pall bearers were Frank Roy (Dauphin), I. J. Finlay, F. K. Carrick, Charles E. Houlding, T. J. Butchart and C. M. Beattie. There were floral tributes from the local Masonic lodge, the Baptist church and the family.

Obituary from Winnipeg Evening Tribune, September 21, 1925.

PIONEER RESIDENT OF RAPID CITY IS DEAD

(Special to the Tribune)

RAPID CITY, September 19 -- Another of Rapid City's pioneer settlers died on Sunday morning in the person of Mrs. Houlding, 79 years old, widow of the late Thomas Houlding. Mrs. Houlding was born at Oakland, Ont., and came west to Potage la Prairie with her husband and family in 1880. They continued west to Rapid City in 1882, where Mr. Houlding engaged in contracting work, the lumber business and later the hardware business, continuing in the latter until the family removed to Saskatoon 19 years ago. Five years ago Mr. and Mrs. Houlding returned to Rapid City to make their home with their daughter, Mrs. T.J. Butchart, Mr. Houlding passing away last October in his 83rd year. Mrs. Houlding was a Baptist, being a prominent member in the early life of the local church. She is survived by three sons and two daughters, W. W. and Charles E. of Saskatoon, Harold of Portland Ore., Mrs. Frank Roy of Dauphin, and Mrs. T.J. Butchart of Rapid City. The funeral took place on Monday, service being held at the Butchart home, conducted by the Baptist pastor, Rev. B. Cerdas. Internment was made in Rapid City cemetery.
