

CELEBRATION OF TWO CULTURES

Photo: Bill Gay

Leamington Mayor John Adams, left, and Zack Chol, co-ordinator of the Migrant Workers Community Program, chat at a reception Sunday prior to a celebration of Mexican Independence Day. Festivities included performances by La Raza Dance Troupe led by Claudia Suarez, and Cassava, a group of Latin musicians who perform musical styles from many areas of Latin America. Also featured were the True Ambassadors, a band made up of migrant workers who spend up to eight months per year in South Essex. Most recently, the band was the opening act for the renowned Mexican band Los Tigres Del Norte at their concert in Leamington. The Migrant Worker Community Program works to provide a more balanced life for the offshore workers by offering various social, cultural and recreational opportunities.
