

Wilmette Man Earns Award From Society

Charles W. Ebersold of Wilmette recently received the American Cancer Society's 1966 Award for Distinguished Service in Cancer Control.

He earned the annual award for his work with the society's Illinois division in the last five years. During this period, he helped recruit volunteer workers for the society and helped acquaint employees of Illinois Bell Telephone Co. with the dangers of cancer.

Mr. Ebersold, 610 Fifth St., is secretary and assistant to the president of the telephone company.

Joining the firm as a student manager in 1938 after graduation from Ohio State University, he became general manager for marketing in 1960, assistant to the president in 1963, and secretary earlier this year.

A committeeman for the Chicago-Area Boy Scout Council, Mr. Ebersold is a director of the Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago and serves on the University of Chicago Council on Medical and Biological Research and the National Commission on Community Health Services.

He also is a member of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry, and the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce.
