

Area Sorority Alumnae Plan Reception, Parties

Gamma Phi Beta Will Honor International President at Tea

Mrs. James J. Marek, Clifton, Ill., newly-elected international president of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, will be honored by Evanston-North Shore alumnae and actives at a reception Sunday in the Epsilon chapter house at Northwestern University, 640 Emerson St., Evanston.

The reception will take place from 3 to 5 p.m.

Other guests will include two international officers, Miss Eleanor J. Sieg, Evanston, executive secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Frank Hiscock, Seattle, Wash., collegiate vice president.

Mrs. Marek was graduated from Northwestern's School of Commerce. As an undergraduate she was elected to Mortar Board, senior women's honor society, the May Court, and was president of the chapter.

For 16 years she was editor of the Gamma Phi Beta magazine, "The Crescent," and served on the Panhellenic national editors' conference.

Accompanying Mrs. Marek will be her husband, her younger daughter, and son who is a student in Northwestern's Law School.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. Albert Ziegler of Wilmette and Mrs. Joseph J. Stefan of Winnetka. At the tea table will be Mrs. Carl Clader and Mrs. Sydney Craig of Winnetka, and Mrs. Richard Wells of Milwaukee. All are former classmates of Mrs. Marek.

Alpha Phi

A cocktail buffet following the Northwestern-Minnesota football game Nov. 5 will benefit the new philanthropy of North Shore Alumnae of Alpha Phi sorority.

The party will be held in the home of Mrs. Samuel White, 644 Walden Rd., Winnetka. Co-chairmen of the event are Mrs.

John Volkert of Northfield and Mrs. Hugh Marsland of Glenview.

Alumnae will give an annual research grant to a resident specializing in cardiology at Evanston Hospital, in conjunction with the sorority's national philanthropy.

The party will have a political theme with patriotic flags and banners and symbols of the political parties. Mrs. Allen Hardy of Wilmette is in charge of decorations.

Other committee chairmen include Mrs. Robert Bentley, Winnetka; Mrs. John Griffith, Kenilworth; and Mrs. R. Theodore Clark, Wilmette.

Pi Beta Phi

North Shore Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi sorority will have five morning coffees to display and sell wares from the Settlement School in Gatlinburg, Tenn., instead of the annual Settlement Tea.

Mrs. Everett Wilson of Deerfield and Mrs. Lloyd W. Scott of Winnetka are chairmen of the coffees.

Mrs. James D. Peterson of Wilmette was hostess for the first coffee Oct. 7.

Other hostesses include:

Oct. 28—Mrs. Frank Hanscom Jr., 1400 Shawnee Trail, Deerfield, 10 a.m.

Nov. 2—Mrs. John W. Davis, 200 Linneman St., Glenview, 10 a.m.

Nov. 4—Mrs. R. C. Leetz, 2603 Colfax Av., Evanston, 10:30 a.m.

Nov. 11—Mrs. Floyd Thorman, 1212 Elm St., Winnetka, 10:30 a.m.

Board members will meet for luncheon at noon Oct. 28 in the home of Mrs. Dennis O'Shea, 1012 Ashland Av., Wilmette.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Willard Medway, Highland Park; Mrs. George E. Cogwell, Wilmette; and Mrs. Roger W. Ernst, Glencoe.

Robert and Carolyn agree their mother, Mrs. Vernon Funk, Winnetka, will be appropriately masked for "Spooky Spree" the North Shore Junior Board of Chi Omega sorority dance to be held at 8 p.m. Saturday in Dawson Brothers' Stable, 2475 Half Day Rd., Deerfield. (W. B. Nickerson Photo)

all about WOMEN

Mrs. Owen Lynch of Glenview from Skokie Valley is assisting with arrangements.

Pledges from the Glenbrook high schools being honored include Miss Kathy Bauch, Miss Janet Jacobson, Miss Laurene Kreer, and Miss Mary Beth Raddy of Glenview, and Miss Laura Oswald of Northbrook.

Gamma Phi Beta Jrs.

Mrs. Thomas Little, 550 Hawthorne Ln., Winnetka, will be the hostess for the Evanston-North Shore Junior Alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta sorority at a bridge party at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday.

Members also will discuss the annual benefit which will aid special classes for the educable mentally handicapped.

Sigma Kappa

Two North Shore alumnae of Sigma Kappa will present the program for the 92nd anniversary noon luncheon of the sorority Saturday in the Spinning Wheel, Hinsdale.

Mrs. Lindle Jarvis of Northfield, a lyric soprano, will present a group of songs, and Mrs. Everett Groves of Wilmette will read from her recently published book of poetry "Harp on the Willow."

Mrs. J. Stannard Baker of Glenview, sorority magazine editor, will be the toastmistress.

Delta Delta Delta

New pledges of Delta Delta Delta sorority at Northwestern University will be entertained by Evanston-North Shore and Skokie Valley alumnae chapters at a tea from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday in the chapter house, 625 University Pl., Evanston.

Gamma Phi Beta alumnae plan their reception for Mrs. James J. Marek, international president. From left are Mrs. David Stark, Glencoe; Mrs. Sumner Lyon, Wilmette; Mrs. Richard Tersing, Glenview; and Mrs. John H. Hutchinson, Winnetka. (Howard Fochler Photo)

Alpha Phi alumnae promote their Nov. 5 post-game, pre-election party with flags and political symbols. From left are Mrs. John Volkert, Northfield; Mrs. John Clancy, Evanston; and Mrs. Hugh Marsland, Glenview. (Howard Fochler Photo)