

Luncheon, Style Shows To Emit 'Orange Glow'

Strolling troubadours and bright fall decorations will set the scene for "Orange Glow Elegance," a luncheon and fashion show to be presented by the North Shore League of Junior Women.

The annual benefit will begin at noon next Thursday in Exmoor Country Club, 700 Vine Av., Highland Park. Proceeds will aid the fund for research and treatment of perceptually handicapped children, a league philanthropy started in 1957.

The Los Galando brothers of Mexico will entertain at the luncheon, assisted by a Wilmette member, Mrs. Raymond LeNobel, known professionally as Anamolina.

To Feature Fall Style

The 2 p.m. fashion show will feature the autumn collection of Madame Baba of Wilmette. A "bride in orange elegance" with bridesmaids attired in gold will climax the fashion show.

Mrs. Joseph E. Reeves is chairman and Mrs. Robert Laird is co-chairman. Also working on the event are Mrs. Kurt Voderberg, tickets; Mrs. Robert Kanney, reservations; Mrs. James Condrin and Mrs. Robert Paustek, invitations; Mrs. Kenneth Ward, gifts; and Mrs. Edward Kebler, special events. All are from Wilmette.

Serve as Chairman

Also serving as chairmen are Mrs. James Geocaris, cocktail tickets; Mrs. Walter Lempke and Mrs. Peter Wardenberg, fashion coordinators, all of Wilmette; and Mrs. Leroy Thomas of Glenview, decoartions.

Mrs. Harry Reisman of Highland Park, league president, will narrate the show. Among the juniors modeling will be Mrs. J. R. Bernier, Mrs. Raymond Busa, Mrs. John Hannon, Mrs. John Jones, Mrs. Lempke, Mrs. Richard Peterson, and Mrs. H. G. Sanabria, all of Wilmette.

Others modeling are Mrs. Wardenberg, Mrs. Harry Wils, and Mrs. Herbert Beckstrom, all of Wilmette, and Mrs. John Burroughs of Glenview.

Dressed in native Mexican costume, three North Shore Juniors will participate in the group's fashion show benefit, "Orange Glow Elegance," to be held next Thursday in Exmoor Country Club. From left
