Telephone Co. to Sponsor 1967 Cover Contest

Illinois Bell Telephone Co. will give a purchase award of $1,500 to the person who designs the best front cover for the 1967 telephone directory.

Two runnersup will receive $1,000 awards each and several $50 honorable mention prizes will be awarded. The contest is open to all persons throughout Illinois and Lake and Porter countries in Indiana. Theme of the contest is Chicago—its spirit, people, and history.

Entry forms may be obtained from any telephone company office in the Chicago area. Entrants must mail cards by Nov. 14 indicating their intention to enter. Actual entries, accompanied by identification cards, must be received by Jan. 30, 1967. Judging will be held the week of Feb. 6 and winners will be announced Feb. 20.

Judges will be Charles C. Cunningham, director at the Chicago Art Institute; Joshua Kind, professor in the Institute of Design at the Illinois Institute of Technology; and Joseph R. Shapiro, president of the Museum of Contemporary Art. Thirteen Chicago art galleries are co-operating in sponsoring the contest.

Cinderella, played by Cindy Martin of Deerfield, waltzes with the Prince, played by Tim Hagan, 304 Hibbard Rd., Wilmette. The two are members of the Front Row Center Theater Company of the Tom Thumb Players, presenting Rodgers' and Hammerstein's "Cinderella" at 1:30 p.m. Sunday and Oct. 30 in the theater, 2332 W. Devon Av., Chicago.

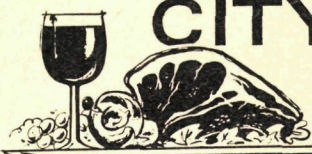

Trio Will Play At Lyric Meet

Members of the Wilmette Chapter, Lyric Opera Guild will hear a string trio when they meet at 1:15 p.m. Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Frederick S. Verink, 3500 Old Mill Rd., Highland Park.

Mrs. David Albee, violinist, Mrs. John Heinrich, cellist, and Mrs. Dudley Robinson, pianist, all of Evanston, will present excerpts from Lyric's 1966 series. The program will include music from Giuseppe Verdi's "La Traviata" and "Otello," Claudio Monteverdi's "L'Incoronazione Di Poppea," Pietro Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana," and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's "The Magic Flute."

Mrs. A. Dryden Eberhart, 1001 Greenleaf Av., arranged the program. Mrs. Jack B. Johnstone, 419 Third St., is president, and Mrs. Peter Bakakos, 3103 Melrose Ct., is hospitality chairman.
