Scribner Heads Committee For Re-election of Assessor

Gilbert H. Scribner Sr. of Winnetka is heading a newly-created nonpartisan committee of real estate men supporting P. J. Cullerton (D) for re-election as Cook County assessor.

Mr. Scribner, chairman of Scribner and Co., Chicago, is a former president of the Chicago Real Estate Board.

Known as an expert in local assessment procedures, Mr. Scribner was an early proponent of the new staggered system of spreading the quadrennial reassessment of real estate over a four-year period.

Mr. Scribner has been a board member of International Business Machines Corp., the New York Life Insurance Co., and the First National Bank of Chicago.

Mr. Cullerton will be honored as a winner of the Donkey Club "Man of the Year" award Saturday. The Democratic club will present the award to the assessor at a party starting at 7:30 p.m. in the Pavillon restaurant in Northbrook. Charles Caplan of Wilmette is club president.
