Winnetka Trust joins in sponsoring the midwest's no. one all-purpose charge card

There's a growing trend toward the single, all-purpose credit card . . . and Winnetka Trust is taking the lead in offering the best card of all—Town and Country. It's the card honored by more merchants and sponsored by more leading banks than any other.

You get a lot of advantages with Town and Country! You can charge more things at more places . . . you get only one bill at the end of each month (broken down, of course, so you can tell what you bought and where) . . . and you can cut down on the amount of paper you have to carry around with you. If you're like most of us these days, those purses and wallets are getting pretty bulky.

We're working out the final details of this new all-purpose charge plan now . . . so stand by. You'll be hearing more from us about Town and Country in the next few weeks.
