

Tilden Captures State Net Title After Hard Fight

Bill Tilden came through with flying colors, and gave a gallery of 5,000 enthusiastic tennis fans a thrill when he annexed the Illinois State tennis championship on the Skokie country club courts last Sunday afternoon. Tilden's victory was earned after the hardest battle a five-set match has seen since the opening of the season. His opponent, Harry Henshaw, of Channahon, put up a gallant fight. The score was 7-5, 6-2, 6-8, 8-6.

At the same time, Tilden also won the title of the Illinois State tennis association. Tilden had last year won the title of the Illinois State tennis association. —when English hedges are turned to rainbows; when style-shows are on in the Paris salons; when galleries are less crowded, accommodations more reasonable, and the atmosphere coolly mellow—sail down the "water boulevard" of the St. Lawrence on a regal Empress! Scenes of old-world charm on either hand; only about 4 days open sea; the associations, smooth service, luxuries of a Continental Club—surely this, you'll say, is the ideal rest-trip before the winter's activities.
