Plans are now under way to furnish the chancel of St. John's with altar, lectern, baptistry and pulpit, and it is hoped that by next fall these may all be installed. One design will be carried out in them, and all will be in thorough keeping with the architecture of the church. The project will be financed by those who were baptized or confirmed at St. John's in past years, as a memorial.

Every teacher and officer of the Sunday school should attend the meeting on Monday, June 30, since important matters concerning vacation work and the general organization of the Sunday school will be discussed. Several papers prepared by the teachers will be read. A report of the association meeting will also be rendered.

WILMETTE BOYS OFF FOR CAMP

3 Will Start on Outing at Roosevelt, Monday

Joseph S. Monfort, 1124 Linden avenue, Fenton Hopkins, 721 Ninth street, and Ove Weberg, 1419 Hill, all of Wilmette, are going to Camp Roosevelt with the first contingent of boys who will assemble from all parts of the country at the LaSalle street station on Monday morning, June 30, enroute to the camp on a special train leaving at 9 o'clock, central standard time.

This group will be followed by two others, on July 21 and August 4, giving from 800 to 900 boys opportunity to avail themselves of the courses in summer school, military training or junior camp.

The entire camp will close on August 16. Boys of good character from 10 to 18 years of age are eligible to attend.

Supervised by Gov't

Camp Roosevelt is conducted under government supervision as an auxiliary of the Chicago summer school system. It is attracting nation-wide attention because of its unique policy for giving boys, on the basis of a public institution, a course of highly specialized training, excellent care and food equal to that of the finest private camps. This is made possible through the support of the war department, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and public-spirited men who bear all financial burdens. A three-weeks' outing under finest possible conditions, costs each recruit $33.00 for the training, mess, and healthful outdoor vacation.

Breaks Attendance Record

Major F. L. Beals, supervisor of physical and military training in the Chicago public schools, is in command of the camp. He is busy in his office at the board of education, 460 S. State street, perfecting arrangements for the comfort of the first contingent. According to the enrollment so far this year, all previous attendance records will be smashed.

Applications for the second and third periods of attendance will be accepted at the camp headquarters, Camp Roosevelt, Indiana.

NEW BOND ISSUE TO BE FLOATED

Subscriptions Are Opened by Public Service Company

Further increase in the large investment in properties by the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois has been announced by that company in a letter to the 21,000 preferred and common stockholders offering them the opportunity of subscription to a new issue of 7 per cent cumulative preferred stock on advantageous terms carrying available subscription right privilege.

The announcement states that the company's electric and gas business is growing at such a rapid rate, that it expects to spend this year about $10,000,000 for additional plant and extensions to the already existing properties, valued at more than $70,000,000. Business in 1923 was the largest in the company's history and for the first four months of this year showed a large increase.

Subscriptions Limited

Because of the limited amount of the new preferred stock, the company states that stockholders must confine their subscriptions to one share of new stock for each five shares of preferred or common stock now held. Owners of stock on July 3 will be permitted to subscribe at $100 per share either in cash, in quarterly payments, or on a ten monthly payment plan. The privilege of subscribing ends on August 1. The company's letter to stockholders says:

"The company is offering this stock to provide funds for increasing its generating capacity, facilities and equipment to take care of the constantly increasing demands for its service. In 1923 the company enjoyed the largest business in its history, as evidenced by increases of $2,302,247 in business and 32,820 in customers over the previous year."

Wins National Honor

The Public Service company won national attention a short time ago, when in competition with all electric light and power companies in the United States, it was awarded the Charles A. Coffin medal for 1923. In making the award the prize committee stated that it was "for distinguished contribution to the development of electric light and power for the convenience of the public and the benefit of the industry."

The company's stockholders are practically all customers of the company, 92 per cent of them living either in communities served or elsewhere in Illinois.

Surgeon's Knife's Enemy to Cancerous Growths

Springfield—"What the scaffold and noose are to the murderer, the surgeon's knife is to cancer," declared Dr. Isaac D. Rawlings, state director of health, in an interview here on the prevention and cure of cancer. Capital punishment relieves society from danger, while surgical operations may remove from the body a group of cells, the criminals of the body, which have embarked upon wild and lawless career of growth and destruction that amounts to a murderous riot among the cells of the body.

"For advanced cancer the medical profession still has no method of cure to offer the public," said Dr. Rawlings, "but for early or incipient cancer and for precancerous conditions — conditions known to precede and perhaps to cause cancer—surgical operations, radium treatment and X-Ray treatments have all three been employed with considerable success. These methods are absolutely scientific and offer positive hope for cure when cancerous conditions are correctly diagnosed and treated early enough. Physicians must be consulted early in regard to such matters.

Mrs. J. H. Long and her granddaughter, Evelyn Mack, of 815 Gregory avenue, are on an extended trip in the east. They are accompanied by Miss Mack's father, Walter L. Mack. They intend to stop in Washington, Boston, Philadelphia, Atlantic City and New York before arriving home about July 1.

The Responsibilities of the Churches—

III. THE CHILDREN

A sane philosophy and a true moral sanction cannot grow in the consciousness of an individual, of a community, or of a nation except on a foundation of religious principles and precepts.

Therefore there rests upon the churches, jointly with the parents, the responsibility of imparting to the coming generation an understanding of and a love for the great truths of Christianity.

This responsibility the Wilmette Churches are discharging to their utmost.
