Party Brings Xmas Cheer to Mothers and Children

THE Junior Auxiliary of the Infant Welfare association gave a Christmas party for the mothers and children of the Eckhart Station, Chicago, Thursday afternoon, December 18.

About 300 mothers and children gathered in the hall around the huge Christmas tree. They were amused for a time by a professional entertainer with a trained dog. Then Miss Theresa Backus and Miss Helen Frazier, local girls, sang several very clever songs. The program was curtailed, as the owner of the five trained bears that had been engaged for the occasion refused to allow the animals out on the icy pavements.

At the conclusion of the entertainment, refreshments were served, and as the guests departed, Santa Claus gave each one a gift and a bag of candy.

Mrs. James Bennett was chairman of the entertainment committee, Mrs. Walter Blake, chairman of refreshments, and Mrs. Robert Berger, chairman of the Kenilworth branch, assisted. Paul Koche played the role of Santa Claus, and Mrs. Marshall Davies baked about 100 cookies for the affair.

This is the first year the Auxiliary has been in charge of the Christmas party, the senior board having conducted it before.

David Laird Todd arrived Saturday from his home in Salisbury, Md., to spend Christmas with Mrs. Todd and her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Holmes, at 622 Central avenue. Mrs. Todd, who has been visiting her parents for two months, will return with her husband next week. Mrs. Fred Breit gave a dinner and bridge for the Todds Tuesday evening at her home in Kenilworth.

Donald and Lawrence Bateman, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bateman, 35 Michigan avenue, are at home for the holidays, the former from Brown university and the latter from Lake Forest. Miss Barbara Jean Bateman did not return for Christmas, but stayed in California, where she attends Miss Williams' institute at Thousand Oaks, Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Lodwig came from their home in Centerville, Iowa, Christmas Eve, to spend the holidays with Mrs. Lodwig's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Nicholes of 816 Forest avenue. Mrs. Nicholes is giving an afternoon bridge for Mrs. Lodwig next Monday afternoon.
