

TEACHERS TO ATTEND MEETING AT EVANSTON

Instructors in North Shore
Schools Will Hear Noted
Educator at Institute

Divisions one, two and three of Cook county schools will attend the annual meeting of the Teachers' Institute, to be held at the Evanston Woman's club Monday, November 9, beginning at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. All teachers from Wilmette, Kenilworth, Winnetka and Glencoe will attend this meeting, and the schools in those villages will be closed all day Monday.

The morning program is as follows: Music, by Boltwood School orchestra; B. F. Stuber, conductor; greetings, by Edward J. Tobin, Cook county superintendent of schools; address, "Mission Robin," by Wallace Bruce Milburn, professional lecturer of general literature, Armour School of Technology; music, by Imperial quartet, Chicago; illustrated address, "Other Worlds Than Ours," by Dr. F. R. Moulton, University of Chicago.

Gilkey is Speaker

The afternoon program of the institute will be held at the First Congregational church at Hinman avenue and Lake street, Evanston. There will be a story, "He Knew Lincoln," by Henry Walter Graham, Chicago's humorous story teller, and an address on "India From an American Point of View—America From an Indian Point of View," by the Rev. Charles W. Gilkey of the Hyde Park Baptist church, Chicago. The afternoon session will begin at 1:30 o'clock. A large number of teachers are expected to attend the meetings.

New Trier Celebrates Homecoming Saturday

Saturday, November 7, will be Homecoming Day for New Trier high school. There will be a football game with Waukegan on the New Trier field at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and in the morning there will be a parade, with many floats which have been prepared by the various adviser rooms of the school. Many of the alumni are expected back and it is thought that the seating capacity at the football field will be taxed to the limit.
