

With the Bowlers

With Hess Motor Service bowlers rolling along at a dizzy pace 143 points in the lead in the Business Men's Bowling league, Snider-Cazel Drug-gists provided the only other outstanding feature of last week's competition. The drugmen pulled up to within a game of the second-place Koon Auto Sales men showed indications of being headed for still greater honors.

In the Women's league, Goodwin's Beauties hold their pace unsullied by defeat, now showing 21 victories. New Trier Confectioners and the Hanna Hatters are still knotted for second honors with the balance of the field trailing far behind.

Critics Acclaim Lusk in Recent Appearances

Milan Lusk, internationally known violinist, residing at 810 Michigan avenue, Wilmette, achieved new laurels when he appeared within the last fortnight in two recitals at Orchestra hall. The leading critics of the Chicago dailies commented in no uncertain terms about his artistry, temperament, and remarkable technic. DeVries in the American, spoke of Lusk as a "sincere" artist and was impressed by the rhythmic play effect of his playing. Gunn in the Herald-Examiner began his review with heavy headline "Lusk In Fine Recital" and continued: "Lusk is one of the younger violin virtuosos who should be heard oftener. He has tone, technic, and magnetism."

Mr. Lusk also filled several important dates in the states of Missouri, Nebraska, and Minnesota last week. He appeared in joint recital with Allen McQuibae, well known tenor and was accorded everywhere an enthusiastic reception. He is booked for several big events this month, one on November 20 when he appears with Helen Freund, soprano, of the Chicago Civic opera.
