JUNIOR DANCE TONIGHT

Ouilmette Country club juniors and their guests will throng to the club this evening for the Junior dinner-dance which will be one of the outstanding social events of their season. The College Crew from Chicago university will provide the music for the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald M. Gallie returned to their home at 1115 Elmwood avenue after a delightful cruise to warm southern climates. After a short stay in Washington, they went on to New York to sail from there on the Toloa for Havana. From there they went to Jamaica and on to Costa Rica, to Panama, to New Panama, then back to Havana and New York.

Mrs. S. M. Dingee, 926 Lake avenue, her daughter, Miss Annie Dingee, and Mrs. Sam Dingee of Wausau, Wis., left Wednesday for Biloxi, Miss., where they will spend the remainder of the winter season. Mrs. Sam Dingee joined her husband there.

A. J. Mouat of 616 Lake avenue entertained the Men's Whist club Monday evening. The men will hold their next meeting at the home of Arthur J. Taylor, 835 Central avenue, Monday evening, March 1.

Mrs. Harry Griswold and Mrs. Richard N. Jordan of the Linden Crest apartments are leaving Monday to visit Mrs. George Murdoch in Davenport, Iowa. They will be away about a week.

Mrs. E. P. Fatch, 611 Washington avenue, will spend the coming weekend as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Louise Bruno, of Downer's Grove.

Marries in June

MARY HELEN PANCOAST

Fragrant spring flowers, American Beauty roses, and hearts, artistically arranged, and strains of harp music played by Dorothy Bell added their charm to the beautiful reception given at the Pancoast home, 1301 Greenwood avenue, Thursday afternoon, February 11, when Mr. and Mrs. Josiah A. Pancoast announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Helen, to Judson M. Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Judson F. Stone of 1234 Ashland avenue.

Mrs. Pancoast and her daughter and Mrs. Judson F. Stone were in the receiving line and assisting were Mrs. Arthur Hammond, Mrs. Willis Hutson, Mrs. R. E. Pattison Kline, Mrs. Barton Little, Mrs. John R. Cochran, and Mrs. Henry Jonas. Assisting at the tea table were the following sorority sisters of Miss Pancoast, the Misses Naomi Sloan, Helen Dyche, Vivian Holmes, Beatrice Pank, Mary Louise Gent, Marcelite Melind, Madeline Hammond, Virginia Thompson, and Mrs. Russell Chandler.

The wedding will take place in June.

James Calloway, who has been ill in the Evanston hospital with pneumonia for about two weeks, has returned to the home of his mother, Mrs. A. W. Calloway, of 627 Eleventh street.

Dr. Carl Duth Campbell of Tulsa, Okla., who is taking a special dental course for children at the Northwestern Dental college, spent Sunday as the guest of Mrs. Albert A. McKeighan of 1025 Greenleaf avenue.
