For the bride who is planning the details of her own trousseau, we suggest the following ways of making a predetermined budget cover more needs and luxuries—and cover them more satisfactorily.

A "Vogue" Wedding Gown that Might Have Been Made in Paris

Lace and taffeta, ivory white and softly bouffant, makes her the loveliest bride of the season. . . . When she retires to private life, off comes the train; and she has a smart evening dress which might have been made in Paris itself! Vogue pattern 8133.

In the Yard Goods Department, just at her left, she will find:

White taffeta, 36 inches, $2.50

Crepe romain, 40 inches, $3.95

Flat crepe, 40 inches, $3.45.

Crepe de chine, 40 inches, $2.75

Georgette, 40 inches, $1.85, $2.45

All silk bridal illusion, 3 yards wide,
price per yard, $4.95

Loveliest of hand-made laces, $5, $6,
and $8.50 a yard

An Ideal Hosiery Wardrobe for the Going-Away Bride

To wear with your sports clothes and street tailleur, three pairs of Ruby Ring semi-chiffon hose, chosen in three daytime shades, if you wish. Three pairs, $4.60.

In the newest evening shades, choose three pairs of Ruby Ring hose, in either all silk chiffon or lisle topped service hose—or part of each. Three pairs, $5.50.

Where lights are brightest and critical eyes watch your every move—with your loveliest gown, wear Gordon hose in chiffon or service silk. $2.25; 3 pairs $6.40.

Why We Advise the Gordon and Ruby Ring

Women of discrimination, once having chosen either of these makes, come back again and again for hosiery of the same kind. They believe, with us, that there is no better hose for the price than our own special Ruby Ring; and for dressiest occasions, no better hose at any price than the Gordon.
