Northwestern Opens Its Observance of 68th Commencement

Customs and traditions that have colored Commencement week programs at Northwestern university for 67 years, will feature the 68th annual commencement that began Wednesday evening, May 19, and will be continued through Monday, June 14.

The evening of May 19 saw thousands of purple candles lit by alumni groups the country over where gatherings celebrated the annual candle-lighting night. Thursday the campus May pageant was staged out of doors, and Friday brought the senior statistical reports at Fisk hall from students of the College of Liberal Arts.

The Chicago North Shore Music Festival, opening this week, is regarded as an item of commencement time at the University gymnasium, and these commencement events will follow:

Wednesday, June 9—Law school, reception to graduates, Dean John H. Wigmore and Mrs. Wigmore, 207 Lake street, 8 o'clock.

Sunday, June 13—Baccalaureate services, gymnasium, sermon, the Rev. Ernest Fremont Tittle, 3:00; Candlelight service of song, gymnasium, 9:00.

Monday, June 14—Commencement exercises, speaker, the Rev. Timothy Stone, D. D., gymnasium, 10:30; luncheon for faculties and guests, North Shore hotel.

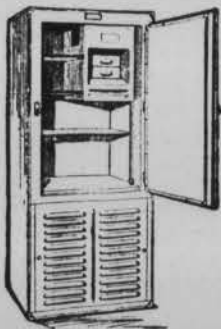

JUDGE ADDRESSES BOYS

Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson of the United States District court in Chicago spoke before junior and senior boys at New Trier high school Tuesday of last week. The subject of his address was the opportunity offered by the law as a profession. Judge Wilkerson is a resident of Winnetka.

Mrs. Donald Simmons and her baby are spending a short time with Mrs. Simmons' mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carnahan, of 700 Central avenue.
