

Joseph Marshall Marries Chicagoan at Church Service

Charming simplicity was the keynote of a wedding of Saturday, June 19, the occasion of the marriage of Miss Dorothy Lizars, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stoddard Pelton, of Chicago, to Joseph Bowman Marshall, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bowman Marshall of 1040 Elmwood avenue. The Rev. A. D. Kolkebeck read the service at 4 o'clock in the chapel of the Church of the Atonement, Chicago, before an altar graced with candles and white peonies.

The bride wore a dress of white satin with a collar of lace. A coronet of lace held the tulle veil in place, and she carried a bouquet of valley lilies and white roses. The maid of honor, the bridegroom's sister, Miss Mary Elizabeth Marshall, wore a dress of apple green taffeta with the scallops of the tight, sleeveless bodice, and bouffant skirt faced with orchid taffeta. Her hat was of orchid braid, trimmed with a single flower, and she carried a large, graceful bouquet of spring flowers in pastel shades.

Joseph Bowman Marshall served his son as best man, and Marshall Webber of Wilmette, and Ross Lizars of Chicago were the ushers.

A small reception for the immediate families and relatives was held at the close of the ceremony in the Prince of Wales room of the Sovereign hotel. Mr. Marshall and his bride departed immediately afterwards on a motor trip to Eagle River and Star Lake, Wis.

Mrs. Arthur H. Howard, Mrs. J. Welton Fisher, Jr., Mrs. B. F. Blymyer and Mrs. M. H. McMillen left Monday to motor to the summer home of Mrs. D. J. David at Frankfort, Mich., where they will remain for a week.
