Priscilla Lloyd Is to Become Bride of Paul Chapin, Tues.

The marriage of Miss Priscilla Lloyd and Paul W. Chapin will be celebrated in the First Congregational church Tuesday, June 29, at 4:30 in the afternoon.

Miss Lloyd has chosen for her bridesmaids, Miss Jane Chapin of Clinton, Ill., sister of the groom; Miss Garnet Knights of Lima, Ohio; Miss Katherine Parkhill of Pierceton, Ind., and Miss Elizabeth West of Chicago, the latter three, college friends of the bride. Miss Marian Hadley of Coldwater, Mich., another classmate, will sing. Owing to the fact that the bride's sister, Miss Dorothy, is in China, there will be no maid of honor.

Lloyd White of New Haven, Conn., will act as Mr. Chapin's best man, and Harold Lane of Hammond, Ind.; E. P. Mead of Miami Beach, Fla.; R. C. Peltz of Clinton, Ill., and Horatio Fitch of Elmhurst, will usher.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Stephen A. Lloyd, father of the bride.

The bridesmaids and soloists will wear pastel shades of green, orchid, yellow, powder-blue and rose taffeta, combined with silver lace, and the decorations of the church will be palms, ferns, delphinium and roses.

A reception will be held in the church parlors following the ceremony, and the wedding supper will be served at the home of the bride, 1035 Lake avenue, for the bridal party and members of the immediate families.

Since Miss Lloyd's return from Coldwater, Mich., where she has been teaching in the high school during the past year, her friends have vied with each other in various forms of entertainment. In addition to the affairs of last week, and filling the time until the wedding, are a Bride's Bridge party at the home of Miss Elizabeth Brown on Robsart road, Kenilworth, Wednesday of this week; a luncheon given by Mrs. Charles McCoy at her home, 730 Ashland avenue, Thursday; the bridal dinner at the Edgewater Beach hotel on Monday evening; and a luncheon for the bridal party at the home of Mrs. C. A. Carpenter, 601 Washington avenue, on the day of the wedding.

BETROTHED
