Street of Graduates Is Found in Wilmette

The eight hundred block on Elmwood avenue, Wilmette, claims a unique distinction—that of having the largest number of representatives in the graduating class at New Trier High school this year. The list includes Elizabeth DeBerard, 802 Elmwood avenue; Llewellyn Bowen, 809 Elmwood avenue; Frederick Schmidt, 827 Elmwood avenue; Hugh Campbell, 829 Elmwood avenue, and Elizabeth Mulford, 835 Elmwood avenue.

Frederick Schmidt was president of the class of 1926.

The same block on Elmwood avenue also claims another graduate in the person of Irving Heller, 808 Elmwood avenue, who completed his course at the Missouri Military academy.

Thomas J. Tubbs, 1350 Greenwood avenue, left June 20, for a four weeks' business trip in Michigan. Mrs. Tubbs is leaving June 28 for an extended trip abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Edinger, 2133½ Ridge avenue, Evanston, announce the birth of a daughter, Marilyn Jane, June 12, at the Evanston hospital.

The Home and Garden club of Kenilworth journeyed to Lake Forest Monday to view the Rockefeller McCormick, the Chase, the Douglas and the Chapman gardens.

Mrs. Otis Heath of Evanston entertained at a "bon voyage" bridge party Monday afternoon in honor of her sister, Miss Katherine Stolp of Kenilworth.

Art Institute Faculty Honors Wilmette Artist

Miss Alice Mae Jackson of 1017 Elmwood avenue has received honorable mention from the faculty of the Chicago Art Institute. One of her paintings, "The Departure of the Fleet," which was shown in the recent North Shore Artists' exhibit, is now being exhibited in the east gallery in the Art Institute.

Miss Jackson is accompanying her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Jackson, on a motor trip to their summer home at Portage lake, Mich., where she will do some out-of-door painting during the summer.

KNOW ILLINOIS!

Bank Deposits of $3,273,000,000 during 1925—$532 for each person in the State—set a high record for Illinois.

The largest projecting electric sign in the world has been installed on a Chicago theatre. Electricity sufficient for a town of 8,000 persons is required to light it.

Illinois' 44 towns of 10,000 or more persons have 59 per cent of the State's population.

Illinois' 2,345 bakeries lead all other industries in the State in number of establishments, according to the latest United States Census.

The Grand Army of the Republic—the G. A. R.—was formed by Civil War veterans in Decatur in 1866.

Annual production of manufactured gas in Illinois is sufficient to cook meals for the entire population of the United States for two weeks.

Illinois farms have an average acreage of 134.8 acres. The average improved acreage is 115.1.

Mrs. Sidney Ball of Indian Hill entertained her Kenilworth bridge club at luncheon Wednesday.
