Talks on Social Service Conditions in Chicago Area

The Chicago metropolitan area now ranks as third in the world, according to Dr. Martin H. Bickham, a Wilmette resident and an official of the United Charities of Chicago, who spoke before the Wilmette Optimists club last Tuesday. Mr. Bickham said that in recent years the Chicago area had passed those of Paris and Berlin, which had been larger.

The address was on social service conditions in the metropolitan area. The work is divided into three zones, he said, those being municipal, suburban and satellite (just beyond suburban, such as Waukegan or Joliet.)

Mr. Bickham suggested that residents of the north shore take an intelligent interest in the adjustment of newcomers to their environment and that social service clubs to study conditions in the Chicago area and to cooperate and offer suggestions to the organized charities, be formed. He also said that north shore communities must maintain their identity and integrity of character and not allow themselves to be swallowed by the city.

Plans Underway to Make Smith College Ball a Gala Affair

Plans are materializing in the arrangements for the Smith College ball which is being given under the auspices of the Evanston Smith College club, embracing villages from Highland Park to Chicago. The ball will be held at the Evanston Country club, Wednesday evening, October 13, and is the scholarship ball which has for its purpose, raising money to send a girl from Evanston High school to Smith college.

Mrs. E. S. Clark, (Elizabeth Campbell) is general chairman for the ball, and has an efficient committee co-operating with her to make this affair one of the outstanding events of the year. Jerry Conley's orchestra has been engaged to provide the music, and the mystery of the entertainment is yet unsolved. But Miss Virginia Forbes of Evanston, who is in charge of providing the entertainment and her committee, are planning some striking forms of amusement devised to delight everyone.

The list of sponsors for the ball include Mrs. Mary Hastings Bradley of Chicago, Mrs. J. E. Blunt, Jr., of Evanston, Mrs. Horace Armstrong of Winnetka, Mrs. Warner Baird of Evanston, Mrs. E. S. Bersback of Evanston, Mrs. J. W. Knight of Evanston, Mrs. F. Parker Davis of Evanston, Mrs. Rawleigh Warner of Evanston, Mrs. Donald Scott of Evanston, Mrs. Earl Reed of Evanston and Mrs. C. H. Schweppe of Lake Forest.
