

North Shore Society Hails the Approach of New Year

North Shore Clubs Observe Season by Dinners and Dances

By JEAN TEN BROECK

The coming of the infant New Year to take up his abode along the north shore is being celebrated by our residents in home groups both large and small, in theaters, clubs and hotels in the city, and by many at local golf and country clubs.

The Ouilmette Country club is having the big event of its year this evening with its 8 o'clock dinner and dance. A large representation of Wilmette society will be among those present and numerous dinner parties will precede the dancing. Among those entertaining in this manner will be Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zipprich, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ludwig, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Condy, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shoreen and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kidd.

From 4 until 10 New Year's day, according to its annual custom, the club will hold open house for its members and their house guests.

The Thursday evening buffet dinner and bridge parties resumed again this week.

Indian Hill club is planning a watch party this evening from 10 until 2. Adult members and their friends will gather to dance and enjoy the passing of the old year.

A group of the younger married set of Winnetka celebrating there the coming of 1927 will include Mr. and Mrs. Brownell Bradstreet (Margaret Orde), Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoyt and Miss Orde of Glencoe and Mr. Knight. Among those who have reserved tables for watch night are Mr. and Mrs. Langdon Pearse of Winnetka, Mr. and Mrs. Horace M. Capron of Evanston, with two guests, will also be at Indian Hill.

Included in the groups planning to dine together and then adjourn to the club for dancing and amusement New Year's eve are Mr. and Mrs. James B. Beardslee, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore G. Rockwell and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Warden, all of Winnetka. The party will go to the club after an informal supper and bridge at the Warden home.

Skokie as a club is not holding special observation of the New Year, but it will be the scene of the dance given by the Skokie Subscription Dance club, with Cope Harvey's orchestra providing the music.

Kenilworth Man Engaged

William Alfred Dockery of Dockery, Miss., and Memphis, Tenn., announces the engagement of his daughter, Frances, to James Crowell Cherry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallace Cherry of 422 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth.

Miss Dockery attended the Misses Thomas school in Memphis and the Finch school of New York. Mr. Cherry is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is spending the holidays at the home of his fiancée.

Engagement Revealed

At a luncheon and bridge given by Miss Marian Reese Monday, December 27, at the Chicago Yacht club her engagement was announced to Harry Donaldson, son of Mrs. H. V. Donaldson of Evanston. Miss Reese is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles N. Reese of 727 Forest avenue. The Donaldson family lived here for many years.

Off to Bermuda

Moffett Studio

After their wedding Tuesday evening, December 28, Mr. and Mrs. William Henry McAdams left on a honeymoon trip to Lake Placid and Bermuda. Mrs. McAdams was Miss Jean Dubbs of Wilmette.

Harvard Music Clubs in New Year's Eve Concert

New Year's eve at Orchestra hall will witness the famous concert given by the Harvard University instrumental club, and will afford a pleasant early evening's entertainment for north shore residents who plan other functions for the later hours following.

Patronesses for the concert comprise a list of more than 120 names, many coming from Winnetka, Kenilworth and Glencoe. Included in the group are Mesdames Ayres Boal, Henry Bartholomay, William C. Boyden, Frank W. Blatchford, Laird Bell, F. Goddard Cheney, Heyliger A. deWindt, Raymond Durham, Percy B. Eckhart, Calvin Fentress, Robert Gay, Victor M. Harding, Lawrence A. Janney, Francis A. Lackner, George Massey, John S. Miller, Murry Nelson of Chicago, formerly of Winnetka, James Simpson, and Hathaway Watson.

Fifty musicians, members of vocal, banjo, and mandolin clubs and the "Gold Coast" orchestra will take part in the evening program. Harvard songs, jazz, and syncopation of the present day will compose the program of the four musical groups. All will combine in the final number, "Fair Harvard."

Wed Xmas Night

About fifty relatives were guests at the marriage of Miss Ruth Wilson to Edward Lawyer of River Forest which was solemnized Christmas night at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Arthur W. Duncan of 131 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods. The Rev. Francis J. Tromp, formerly rector of the River Forest Episcopal church, officiated at the ceremony.

Mr. Lawyer and his bride will make their home in Oak Park.

Pink, Green, White Color Note at Recent Wedding

Pink, green and white composed the color scheme carried out in the church, in the gowns and at the reception for the wedding of Miss Jean Dubbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carbon P. Dubbs of 1004 Michigan avenue, and William Henry McAdams of Boston, which took place Tuesday evening, December 28. The Rev. Francis Stifler read the service in the Wilmette Baptist church at 8:30 o'clock, with William H. Barnes playing organ music throughout the ceremony. The reception was held in the Ouilmette Country club at the close of the service, with dancing following.

The bride's gown was of transparent white velvet. Her flesh colored tulle veil was fastened to her head with a cap of point lace which had been worn by brides in the family for many years. The bridal bouquet was a shower of valley lilies, sweet peas, and orchids.

The bride's attendants wore dresses of cut velvet on chiffon. The matron of honor, Jessie Agnew Albert of Los Angeles, was in delicate green, and she carried a pink willow plume fan. The bridesmaids, Ida Craven of Philadelphia and Ethel Flentye, Signy Ouse, Evelyn Humphrey Robinson of Wilmette, were in pink, while their willow plume fans were of green. Betty Dubbs and Nancy Albert, the little flower girls, wore pink chiffon.

The best man was the bridegroom's brother, Dr. Oliver McAdams of Pittsburgh, and the ushers were Emil Reis of State College, Pa., Vi Hanks of Boston, Donald Robinson, Albert Brener and Carbon Dubbs, Jr. of Wilmette.

Mr. and Mrs. McAdams have gone to Lake Placid and to Bermuda on their wedding trip.

Jean Jackson to Wed Saturday January 1

Miss Jean Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Jackson of 1195 Asbury avenue, Hubbard Woods, who will be married to Lester R. Gardner of Wallingford, Conn., January 1, has chosen her wedding attendants.

Miss Carol Jackson, the bride's sister, will attend her as maid of honor, and Miss Ethel Jackson, also a sister, will act as one of the bridesmaids. Miss Marjorie Lowe of Chicago, a cousin of the bride, will attend as the second bridesmaid.

Charles M. Barry of Chicago, formerly of Wallingford, will act as best man. The list of ushers includes Carl S. Bullin, of Chicago, formerly of Wallingford, Webster Jackson, the bride's brother, Sidney T. Webster, and William C. Webster, both of Wilmette and cousins of the bride.

The ceremony will take place at Christ church, Winnetka, and will be followed by a small reception for relatives and intimate friends, at the bride's home.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ouse of 621 Maple avenue, Wilmette announce the engagement of their daughter, Signy Landmark, to Albert Wesley Bremer, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Bremer of Evanston. No date has been set for the wedding.
