

Summer Drama Proves Popular With North Shore Society

Midsummer Rivals June as Popular Season for Brides

Contrary to the impression which one is likely to get from reading the society columns in June, that month is not the only one to claim a large proportion of the year's weddings. Already several announcements have been made of approaching marriages during the latter part of this month, September and October, and the fall has been indicated as the time for other weddings.

Next Monday evening, at the home of the bride's brother, Carleton Larmon, in Bowling Green, Ky., Miss Virginia Larmon will be married to Robert Swann, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swann, of 701 Laurel avenue, Wilmette. The wedding will be a quiet one with the ceremony witnessed by relatives or the couple only. Mr. Swann is a graduate of the University of Illinois College of Law in the class of 1926. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. Miss Larmon was also a student at the University of Illinois with Mr. Swann. Mr. and Mrs. Swann, who returned Saturday after six weeks spent at Rochester, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Bay and Miss Rosemary Bay are leaving Saturday for Bowling Green.

A wedding especially interesting in University of Wisconsin circles will be that of Miss Margaret Helen Birk, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Birk of 6008 Winthrop avenue, Chicago, and Frederick S. Rye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Rye of 1015 Chestnut avenue, Wilmette, which will take place at 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening, August 25, at the Edge water Presbyterian church. The Rev. Asa J. Ferry will perform the ceremony.

Miss Birk has chosen as her attendants Mrs. Brower Munroe of Evanston, sister of the groom, who will be maid of honor, and Miss Elizabeth Stoltz of Reedburg, Wis. Miss Margaret Wegener of Chicago, Miss Ruth Hayette of Detroit and Miss Gertrude Gundlach of Chicago, who will be bridesmaids. Brower Munroe will be best man for his brother-in-law, and the ushers will be John Smalley of Wilmette, Carl Webster of Rockford, Horace Moderwell of Evanston, and Gordon Brine of Kenosha, Wis.

Miss Birk and Mr. Rye are both University of Wisconsin graduates. Miss Birk is a member of Alpha Phi sorority, and Mr. Rye of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Still another university romance will find its culmination in one of the fall weddings, that of Miss Marguerite Lundberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Lundberg of 1019 Elmwood avenue, Wilmette, and Howard Storck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clemens Storck of Chicago and Punta Gorda, Fla., which will take place Wednesday evening, September 21, in the First Methodist church of Wilmette. The Rev. Horace G. Smith will perform the ceremony. Miss Emily Patterson of Chicago will be Miss Lundberg's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Winifred Mickey of Wilmette, Miss Luella Burroughs of Winnetka, Miss Ruth Stoker of Winnetka, and Miss Margaret Law of Evanston. Leon Emmert of Chicago will attend Mr. Storck as best man, and Paul Fairchild of Evanston, Robert Shimm of Evanston, Keith Wyman of Evanston will usher. Both Miss Lundberg and Mr. Storck were juniors at Northwestern university last year.

Educational Alliance Will Hold Benefit Bridge Soon

The first of the series of benefit bridges to be given this fall by the Southern Women's Educational alliance has been announced for Monday, August 29, and is to be given in the home of Mrs. W. A. Pusey at the Glenview Golf club. Mrs. Pusey is to be assisted by Mrs. C. R. Glover, Mrs. Clifford A. Caldwell and Mrs. Leslie S. Hungerford. Tables for the affair may be reserved either through Mrs. Pusey or through Mrs. Harold M. Pilsner of Evanston.

The early date for the first of the bridges this season has been chosen in order that Mrs. Caldwell, who is later leaving for Europe, and Mrs. Hungerford, who is returning to her home in Chicago, may have the opportunity to act as hostesses with Mrs. Pusey at Glenview. The proceeds of the affair are to be devoted to the education of southern girls. Last year a series of ten bridges was given to the organization. Mrs. E. J. Buffington of Evanston is president of the Southern Women's Educational alliance.

List Hostesses for Annual Welcome Tea for Illini Freshmen

The list of Chicago and north shore women who will assist Mrs. Charles H. Dennis of Evanston as hostesses for the incoming University of Illinois freshmen at the tea in their honor on September 10 will include the following alumnae: Miss Helen Evans of Wilmette and Mrs. Charles Plochman of Evanston, co-chairmen of the affair; Mrs. Duncan Lloyd of Evanston, Mrs. Charles Howard Bent of Winnetka, Mrs. Fritz Wagner of Winnetka, Mrs. E. E. Stults of Winnetka, Mrs. Robert Knox of Glencoe, Mrs. Harry N. Kerr of Evanston, Mrs. Donald Robinson of Wilmette, Miss Edith Adkins of Wilmette, Mrs. R. E. Schroeder of Chicago, Mrs. Roderick Rawlins of Chicago and Miss Elizabeth Nilson of Glencoe.

The committee in charge of the tea met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Miss Evans, 616 Gregory avenue, Wilmette, to make final arrangements. The Chicago Illini club, which is sponsoring the tea, will have as its guest of honor on the afternoon of September 10, Miss Maria Leonard, dean of women at the university, who will give a short speech of welcome to the new girls. The tea is to be in the gardens of the Dennis home at 1225 Michigan avenue, Evanston.

Kentucky Society Meets at W. A. Pusey Residence

The Kentucky Society of Evanston and the north shore held its regular meeting on Tuesday of this week at the home of Mrs. W. A. Pusey at the Glenview Golf club. Mrs. Robert L. Hall was the speaker, and her subject was "The History of the Silent Brotherhood."

The next meeting of the society will be September 13 at the home of Mrs. E. J. Buffington, 1040 Forest avenue, Evanston.

Society for Shut-Ins Reopens Exhibit Soon

The Vocational Society for Shut-Ins will reopen its exhibits at the Orrington hotel, Evanston, on October 3, with water colors from the work of Miss Alice D. Huger Smith of Charleston, S. C. Mrs. Eric Scudder of the Lake Shore hotel, Chicago, is president of the society, and Mrs. Charles H. Dennis of Evanston is vice-president.

Heath-Huebsch Wedding Solemnized Last Sunday

The marriage of Miss Mae Heath, daughter of Mrs. Abbie L. Heath of 916 Oakwood avenue, Wilmette, to Frederick Huebsch of Evanston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Huebsch of Mc Gregor, La., took place Sunday morning at the home of the bride's mother. The Rev. W. E. McCormack, assistant minister of the First Congregational church of Wilmette, performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Mae Heath, of Mae Heath high school of the bride, was an attendant at the wedding. The bridesmaids were Miss and Mrs. Violet Huebsch, the Misses Doris and Marie Ann Huebsch, and Tom Huebsch, of McGregor, and Doug Waters.

Mr. and Mrs. Huebsch are both University of Illinois graduates. Mrs. Huebsch is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority, and Mr. Huebsch is a Sigma Alpha Epsilon. They have left for a wedding trip through northern Wisconsin, and will return in two or three weeks.

Garden Lovers to Display Blooms at Exhibit in Glencoe

Asters, zinnias, gladioli, dahlias and vegetables will be on display at the annual flower show at the North Shore Garden club Saturday and Sunday, August 20 and 21. The show is to be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Storchill of Sheridan road, Glencoe, from 2 to 7 o'clock Saturday and from 10 to 5 o'clock Sunday. The proceeds resulting from the admission charge will be used for the benefit of Sunset camp, a camp which is opened for two months every spring and fall for cardiac children and throughout the summer for working girls, who come for two-week periods each. Tickets will admit their bearers not only to Mrs. Storchill's garden and the display in her home, but also to the gardens of Milton Goodman, 1114 Sheridan road, Glencoe; Jesse Strauss, Sheridan road, Glencoe; Lawrence F. Stern, 981 Sheridan road, Glencoe; Sam Marx, 1140 Sheridan road, Glencoe; Julius Rosenberg, 101 Roger Williams road, Hubbard Park, and Louis Kuppenheimer, Laurel avenue, Winnetka.

The club has invited its members and members of other north shore garden clubs to enter exhibits. There will be prizes for the best asters, zinnias, gladioli, dahlias and other garden flowers, and for the best arrangements of flowers and for vegetables and their arrangement. Ribbons will be awarded to the women whose flowers win prizes, and money prizes will be given to their gardeners.

The North Shore Garden club flower show was held last year at the Lake Shore Country club and two years ago at the home of Mrs. Storchill.

Wilmette Garden Club to Visit Deerfield Gardens

The Wilmette Garden club plans to make its visit to the Deerfield gardens Wednesday, August 17. Members will have a picnic luncheon at the home of Mrs. Bert L. Davis in Deerfield and will have as their guests the officers of the Deerfield Garden club, who will later act as pilots on the trip through the gardens of Deerfield.

The Wilmette Garden club held its last meeting on Friday of last week at the home of Mrs. J. H. Dyon, 1310 Ashland avenue.

Art Theatre Plays Will Attract Large Audience August 17

New stage plays which are being presented at the Art theatre of Evanston, Ill., on August 17, are "The Dear Departed," "The Last Days of Pompeii," and "The Last Days of Pompeii." The first play, "The Dear Departed," is a comedy which tells the story of a man who is so fond of his mother that he will do anything to keep her from dying. The second play, "The Last Days of Pompeii," is a tragedy which tells the story of the destruction of the city of Pompeii. The third play, "The Last Days of Pompeii," is a tragedy which tells the story of the destruction of the city of Pompeii.

The Art theatre is a new institution in Evanston, Ill., and is expected to attract a large audience. The theatre is located at 1111 North Dearborn street, Evanston, Ill. The theatre is owned and operated by the Art theatre company, which is a non-profit organization. The theatre is expected to be a success, and to provide a high quality of entertainment for the community.

The first play, "The Dear Departed," is a comedy which tells the story of a man who is so fond of his mother that he will do anything to keep her from dying. The second play, "The Last Days of Pompeii," is a tragedy which tells the story of the destruction of the city of Pompeii. The third play, "The Last Days of Pompeii," is a tragedy which tells the story of the destruction of the city of Pompeii.

The audience is expected to be large, and the plays are expected to be a success. The theatre is expected to be a success, and to provide a high quality of entertainment for the community.

The third play, "The Last Days of Pompeii," is a tragedy which tells the story of the destruction of the city of Pompeii. The audience is expected to be large, and the plays are expected to be a success.

The Chicago Art theatre is directed by Ivan Lazareff, and the company members are Agnes George, Emily Hamill, Arthur Klein, Shirley Linder, Elsa Moses, Charles McReynolds, John Marsh, Margaret Stanton, and Lola Volkoff. The theater states as its present purpose "a program of summer playing to acquaint a larger audience with the ideals of the Theatre and its thoroughly original American interpretation of the Moscow Art Theatre method."

The patrons of the theater for the 1927 summer season are Graham Aldis of Chicago, Laird Bell of Winnetka, Tiffany Blake of Lake Forest, Augustus A. Carpenter of Lake Forest, Percy B. Eckhart of Kenilworth, Charles Hamill and William Stanton Monroe of Chicago, and James Porter of Hubbard Woods.