ASSEMBLED in this group are the countenances of officers and directors of the Wilmette Chamber of Commerce, elected at the annual meeting of the Chamber Monday of last week. Reelected to office were President Emil A. Nord, and Treasurer J. M. Budinger. D. E. Allen, Jr., was chosen vice-president, and the other four in the group to serve on the board of directors to fill expired terms.

Mr. Nord is serving his second term as president of the Chamber of Commerce, having no opposition in last Monday's election. Mr. Budinger was also the unanimous choice of the membership to serve a second term as treasurer. Mr. Nord is of the firm of Schultz and Nord, tailors; Mr. Budinger, cashier of the Wilmette State bank; Mr. Allen, of the real estate firm of Eddington and Allen; Mr. Rennecker, owner of the Ridge avenue pharmacy; Mr. Carrico of the drygoods firm of Worthen-Carrico; Dr. McGrath, a physician; Mr. Pearsons, owner of Pearson's Market.

Willett Lectures Attract to Union Church Meetings

The Kenilworth Union church was filled to capacity with an intensely interested audience last Wednesday evening to listen to the second lecture given by Dr. Herbert Willett in the series of lectures occurring every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The first lecture was on "Zoroaster, the Enlightener of Persia," the second, "Confucius, the Sage of China," and next Wednesday he will speak on "Gautama, The Buddha." Dr. Willett is a brilliant speaker and is especially at home with these subjects. He is one of the most eminent living interpreters of comparative religions.

Mallinckrodt Alumnae Makes Plans for Bridge

Mallinckrodt High school alumnae will give a bridge party in St. Joseph's school hall next Friday evening. Those active in the arrangement of the party are Susan Mick, Anne Butzen, and Betty Phillips. Euchre and five hundred also will be played during the evening. Proceeds of the party will go to the building fund of the new Mallinckrodt High school. Prizes are to be donated by the Sisters of Christian Charity and members of the alumnae.

Mrs. F. H. Seubold, 981 Sheridan road, has just returned from Seymour, Ind., where she spent the past week with her mother.
