Clarence Puhlman Passes Away After Short Illness

Following a few days' illness of pneumonia, Clarence Moore Puhlman of 623 Washington avenue, Wilmette, passed away Monday, February 27. Funeral services were held the following Thursday at St. Augustine's Episcopal church, in which he had been an active worker for many years, and interment was in the family vault in Lake Forest. His widow, Mrs. Florence S. Puhlman, survives his passing.

Mr. Puhlman, who was well known along the entire north shore, was born in Plymouth, Wis. He was the son of Otto Puhlman and Anna Moore Puhlman and a descendant of Holland pioneers of New York. His life of enterprise and success reflected the spirit of these early forbears.

Mr. Puhlman was western manager and member of the firm of J. H. Lane and company of New York and Chicago, and a member of the South Shore Country club, Chicago Athletic club, and Shawnee Country club.

MRS. EUGENE HATCH DIES

Mrs. Eugene A. Hatch, a former resident of Wilmette, died suddenly at her home in East Orange, N. J., on February 4. Mrs. Hatch was the eldest daughter of the late Mrs. Mary B. Barry and a sister of Mrs. John A. MacLean of Wilmette, and of Dr. George F. Barry of Evanston. She is survived by her husband and three children, Loren E. Hatch of New York, Kenneth B. Hatch of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Frederick Meeder of East Orange.

PASSES AWAY MARCH 1

Abraham E. Moon, 112 Dupee place, passed away March 1, at the age of 90 years. Funeral services were held in Beloit. Mr. Moon is survived by his daughter, Mrs. William H. Rose, with whom he lived, and Arthur E. Moon of Chicago.
