Life of Edgar Allen Poe Subject for Lecture Class

The morning lecture class held a meeting last Friday at the home of Mrs. Alexander Joslin, Essex road, Kenilworth. Professor Franklyn Bliss Snyder, who has been giving these lectures on recent biographies, last week talked upon the recent book, "Life of Edgar Allen Poe," and to most of his listeners presented a new and interesting idea of Poe and his genius. He brought out the beauties of his poetry and prose with great eloquence and referring to his much discussed weakness for drink showed clearly that Poe was not a dope fiend as so often maligning.

The next lecture will be on Friday morning, May 11, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Carpenter, Essex road, Kenilworth, at 10:30 o'clock. Professor Snyder will speak on "Recent Worth While Literature." This will be the last of the series and every one is urged to attend.

The Misses Elliott, aunts of Mrs. J. C. Carpenter of Essex road, are expected this week-end to be visitors in Kenilworth for several weeks. They have many friends in the village. Their home is in Ithaca, N. Y.

Ask Donations of Prizes for Benefit for Veterans

Plans are underway for the bridge tea to be held on Wednesday, May 16, at the Kenilworth club for the benefit of the disabled veterans in Great Lakes hospital. Quite a number of women have promised to donate prizes and have reserved tables. The tickets have gone out this week.

"Whether or not you are on the list, please consider yourself invited," an announcement reads. "The cause is worthy and we need your co-operation."

"Notify any of the following to reserve tables and donate prizes, the latter being earnestly solicited: Mrs. James H. Prentiss, Kenilworth 127; Mrs. David Decamp, Kenilworth 1260; Mrs. John C. Carpenter, Kenilworth 187; or Mrs. Joseph Joyce, Kenilworth 2134."

"The proceeds of this party will keep the boys at Great Lakes in cigarets, candy, and delicacies. Please help us realize a goodly sum. Refreshments will be served."

"The Neighbors' next trip to Great Lakes will be Monday, May 7. Should you wish to go up with us Monday morning, phone Mrs. James H. Prentiss, Kenilworth 127. Cigarets, candy, clothing, and magazines are taken up at that time."

TO WELCOME HOMECOMER

Fred Little and daughter, Helen, returned to Kenilworth on Tuesday of this week from an extended trip through southern Europe and a cruise on the Mediterranean. They were expected the last of the preceding week but the steamer was delayed at sea and did not come into port until Sunday. They have had a wonderful trip and without the slightest mishap to mar their pleasures. Mrs. Little is giving a tea for forty of Helen's friends next Sunday evening to greet the "homecomer," at her residence on Essex road.

B. C. Hawkes left early this week for his cattle ranch near Encampment, Wyo., to be gone a week or ten days. His ranch is one of the beauty spots of Wyoming with its broad grazing field and trout streams. Seven hundred cattle are now on the place. Mr. and Mrs. Belnap Hawkes and family, who have recently been guests of their parents, returned on Sunday for their home in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Eastman have had as their guest their niece from Wyoming, who has been with them the past two months. She is leaving this week for her home in the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bent and family, formerly of Winnetka, have moved into the Watt home on Melrose and Abbottsford road, Kenilworth. Mrs. Bent is the new president of the Kenilworth Neighbors.

Among those leaving Kenilworth this month for the Kentucky derby at Louisville, are Mr. and Mrs. John O'Connor of Kenilworth avenue, and Mr. Thomas Coyne, Melrose avenue.
