

Kenilworth News

Miss Estelle Farley, daughter of the J. K. Farleys, is representing the Chicago unit of the Camp Fire girls at Camp Nawakwa near South Haven, Mich. Estelle will be gone all summer.

Hunter, Tom, and Jack Hicks of Kenilworth left on Saturday to drive to three Lakes, Wis., to visit Bill Reed of Glencoe who has a summer home there. The boys will be gone about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde P. Ross, with their daughter and son, Shirley and Carleton, of Kenilworth, are sailing on the South America tomorrow for a week's tour of the Great Lakes.

Miss Lucie Dix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dix of Kenilworth, has had her cousin, Miss Caroline Duncombe of Briar Cliff Manor, N. Y., visiting her for the past month.

Miss Elizabeth Freudenreich, daughter of the William Freudenreichs of Kenilworth, entertained a few guests at luncheon and bridge on Tuesday for Miss Harriet Bellamy of California.

Mary Louise Maloney, formerly of Kenilworth, is at Camp Tegawitha, Mount Pocono, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Maloney have taken a house at the seashore for the summer.

Hugh Foresman of Kenilworth entertained some of his friends at a stag party yesterday. The men played golf at the Barrington Golf club and later had dinner and played bridge.

Alexander Newton of Kenilworth entertained a group of his friends at a stag dinner party at Indian Hill club last Saturday night.

Miss Margaret Korrady of Kenilworth entertained at a dinner party last Saturday night in honor of her guest, Miss Marjorie Kittle.

Nanelie Mae Hanna and Eigil Taft Madsen Wed

Pink peonies and mock orange blossoms were combined in decoration for the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edward G. G. Hanna, 1423 Gregory avenue, Wilmette, for many years residents of Evanston, when their daughter, Nanelie Mae, was married to Eigil Taft Madsen of Chicago and Copenhagen, Wednesday, June 27.

The wedding took place in the evening at 8:30 o'clock and was followed by a reception for the fifty guests. It was a candlelight service with candelabra illumining the room from a banking of palms and ferns and the setting of blossoms. The Rev. J. J. Steffens, rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal church, officiated. The bride's father gave her in marriage and her sister, Gretel, served her as maid of honor. Henry Neilsen of Copenhagen was the groomsman.

The bride was gowned in delicate gray chiffon with pearls. She wore gardenias in her hair and her bouquet was of orchids, sweet peas and roses. The honor maid wore peach chiffon and her flowers were pink sweet peas and sweetheart roses.

Following their wedding journey, Mr. Madsen and his bride will live in Rogers Park.

Mrs. Gertrude Rae Goss of 520 Seventh street entertained a small group of her friends at luncheon and the theater Wednesday. She is leaving next week for a trip around the lake and a stay at Mackinac island.

Miss Josephine Farley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Farley of Kenilworth, is visiting Miss Margaret Gordon at her summer home at Lake Hamlin.

Miss Julia Kane of 205 Abingdon avenue, Kenilworth, left Monday for the summer at Camp Oak Openings, near Saugatuck, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bent and their family of Kenilworth have gone away for their vacation. They expect to be gone until August 1.

WARM WEATHER

calls for certain, well-balanced foods—QUALITY, rather than quantity.

THE PANTRY

with its established reputation for serving only that which is GOOD, will serve you in a pleasing manner.

Somebody has said—"they serve such delicious Pies and Cakes."

524 DAVIS ST., EVANSTON

Evanston Shop Open Saturday Evenings Only during July and August

THE HUB

Henry C. Lytton & Sons

CHICAGO—State and Jackson

EVANSTON—Orrington and Church

July Clearances

Now in Progress Throughout Our

Evanston Shop

Tremendous Savings on

SUITS, SHOES and FURNISHINGS

*for Every Man and Young Man
—for Parents of Every Boy*

All Merchandise advertised in the Chicago Papers is also on sale in Our Evanston Shop