Receive Initial Grade Reports at New Trier

Grade card reports for the first half of the summer school session at New Trier High school will be distributed next Monday. The second half of the summer term will begin on that day. More than six hundred students are enrolled in New Trier's summer school this year.

Local Fire Fighters Answer Two Alarms

The Wilmette fire department answered two calls during the last week. Sunday night the department was called to 228 Greenleaf avenue where a tarpaulin covering a pile of bricks had caught fire, threatening residences in the vicinity. The tarpaulin was burned, but no other damage was done. On Monday noon another alarm was sent in when a burning pile of rubbish near the Breakers Beach club in No Man's Land threatened the club offices. The fire fighters allowed the rubbish to burn, but kept the blaze from spreading.

Miss Rebecca Fitch returned Tuesday to her home at 1033 Elmwood avenue from a four weeks' motor trip in the east, where she visited relatives and friends and attended her class reunion at Wellesley college. A college roommate, Miss Marion Radley, motored west with her and comes to Wilmette next week to be her house guest.

—o—
Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Peterson (Carolyn Carlstrom) have gone to California on a six weeks' motor trip.

Henry M. Davis, 85, Dies in Son's Home from Heart Attack

Henry M. Davis, 85 year old Civil War veteran, died suddenly at the home of his son, Lew E. Davis, 110 Thirteenth street, Wilmette, Friday, July 6. Heart attack was the immediate cause of his death.

Mr. Davis had made his home in Wilmette for eight years. The funeral was held at Scott's funeral home in Wilmette Monday and burial was made at Memorial Park cemetery, Evanston.

Out of town relatives of Mr. Davis who attended the funeral services were: Martin H. Davis, of Joliet, Ill., his son; Cora Davis, his niece, also of Joliet; Mrs. Will Herrick, of Villa Park, Ill., his daughter; and a nephew and niece from Grand Rapids, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Davis. Two sons, Ray M. Davis, of Detroit, and another son who lives in Los Angeles were unable to be here for the funeral.

WASSENA LODGE PELICAN LAKE

In the heart of Minnesota's ten thousand lakes. Where a real mess of fish can be caught—just the place for a real dyed in the wool sportsman. Not the formality of a modern hotel—just a place to "be yourself." Enjoy nature's own cradle.

THE place for a real vacation. A hunting and fishing lodge amid the whispering pines of northern Minnesota. A restful retreat with an ideal beach, clean and comfortable beds—unequalled food. Trap shooting, golf, tennis, dancing and horseback riding.

WASSENA, an Indian name meaning eat—excellent food—home cooked and plenty of it. (American Plan). Room and board all for $25 per week. (Gentiles).

For information and immediate reservations call Briargate 8910 or write V. M. STONE, 7681 Rogers Ave., Apt. 01, Chicago, Ill.

It's that Extra Little Spurt
That Determines the Winner!

A FEW of the horses bunched together tearing toward the goal—jockeys hunched forward—and then one pilots his horse ahead of the rest and steps across the line a winner!

You and your competitors are in a race for more business. The winner is the man who injects a spurt into his selling methods and advertising. And what does it more quickly, more efficiently, and more economically than newspaper and direct-by-mail advertising. From our experience with other businesses we know of nothing better.

Let us plan a campaign for you and back it up by good printing. We'd like to talk things over. Just let us know when.
