

Lake Forest Society Girl's Personal Story of how she joined a Circus!

Seven Days with Barnum and Bailey's Circus by Elizabeth Chase

It is a far cry from the drawing room of a Lake Forest mansion to the crowded dressing room of a traveling circus. Here is the personal account of how an indomitable young society miss dared to achieve fame under the big top.

Chicago — Milwaukee — Madison — Rockford — Peoria — were the scenes of her conquests. In each of the cities she tried to get a job. Time after time she was turned down, until finally she was given a trial—only to fail. Still she persisted. Hired—fired—hired again, and finally success. Then came her triumphant entrance as a real circus performer. What a story! Thrills! Spills! Heartaches! Smiles! The intimate details of what goes on under the big top written with inspired enthusiasm. This personal story of a society girl's experience as a performer in the sawdust ring will enthrall you. Don't fail to read it.

Miss Elizabeth Chase, Lake Forest society girl, whose exploits as a horse-woman have won her fame.
