lecture there will be an organ number and a solo. All are invited.

The autumn dinner of the church was held at the Kenilworth club last Wednesday evening. It was a notable success, and hopes were expressed that it may become a regular feature of the church program.

Last Sunday Armistice Day was observed with a special service. In which both church and Sunday school participated.

Sunday morning, November 25, Dr. Willett will preach on "The Grace of Gratitude," a sermon appropriate to the Thanksgiving season.

1st Presbyterian

Corner of Ninth St. and Greenleaf Ave.

Dr. Arthur Frederick Ewert, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of Chicago, will occupy the pulpit of this church at the regular morning worship service, Sunday, November 18, at 11 o'clock. Dr. Ewert is well known in the Chicago Presbytery as a very forceful speaker. He will have a good message for us and we should give him a large audience. Sermon topic: "The Glory of the Church." The public is cordially invited to attend the services of this church. The choir will present the following musical program:

Organ Prelude, "Prayer" (Lohengrin) Wagner
Anthem, "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem" Maunders
Anthem, "Ye Shall Dwell in the Land" Stalner
Organ Offertory, "Larghetto" Batiste
Solo, "A Psalm of Thanksgiving" Allitsen

Mr. Miller
Organ Postlude, "Marche Triumphale" Dubois

Quartet
Catherine Bushouse, soprano
Rose Lutiger Gannon, contralto
John B. Miller, tenor
Edward Otis, bass
Erma Rounds, organist and director

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Departments thoroughly organized for all ages. Adult Bible classes for men and women. The increasing attendance in the Sunday school evidences the fact that the worship services as well as the class sessions are very worth while. We invite you to become a member of our school.

Mid-week service every Wednesday at 8 p. m.

The annual Bazaar and Tea will be given by the seven Spokes of the Woman's society, Thursday, November 22, at the home of Mrs. J. F. Rowley, 1128 Greenwood avenue, from 2 to 5:30 p. m. You will find this an aid to your Christmas shopping. Proceeds of the sale will be for our Building Fund. All women of the village are invited to attend.

Our Thanksgiving early morning devotional service and breakfast will be held at 7:30 Thursday, November 29. This unique service has always been an annual feature ever since the organization of the church and is one of our most enjoyable meetings and a time for real fellowship with one another. Earl G. Low will be the leader. The breakfast service is under the direction of Thomas B. Gibson.

CHICKENS ONE DAY FROM THE FARM!

Why eat "cold storage" chicken, or chicken of uncertain age—perhaps held in unsanitary surroundings for weeks?

You can now secure the most delicious chicken you ever ate—carefully raised and scientifically fed and dressed—plump and delicious, full of tender, flavorful meat, just one day from the rich, fertile poultry country of Iowa.

WAPSIE VALLEY CHICKEN
