

NEW TRIER, EVANSTON IN GRID TITLE TILT

Gray and Green Battlers to Meet Undeclared Evanston Squad Thanksgiving Day

New Trier and Evanston grid squads, both undefeated this season, play on the Indian Hill field at noon Thanksgiving Day for the unofficial football championship of the Suburban league. The championship will be unofficial because the new Suburban league does not become a fact until the start of the basketball season. Nevertheless the victorious team will be undisputed champion as it will be the only undefeated suburban team.

New Trier is anxious to pay up for the game in 1926, the last time Evanston played at Indian Hill, when the home team was whitewashed, 32 to 0.

Evanston also wants to pay back a defeat on its own field. New Trier journeyed to Beardsley Field last Thanksgiving and, although behind at the half, finished a thrilling battle with a 20 to 12 victory.

Best in History

This year's Gray-Green team is the strongest in New Trier's history and to all appearances the Evanston squad is of an equal calibre. Neither team has been defeated, but New Trier was held to a 6-6 tie by Lindblom in the second game of the season. The closest any team has come to tying Evanston was three weeks ago when Deerfield was beaten by a safety in an otherwise scoreless game.

The Thanksgiving Day rivals each started the season off by beating City league teams. Lake View bowed to the Gray-Green team, 26-0 and the Evanstonians swamped Crane with a 38 to 0 score.

Three teams have played both New Trier and Evanston. Deerfield gave only two points to Evanston and succumbed to the Indian Hill squad, 26 to 6.

Mundelius crossed Oak Park's line to score the only points in the game between Oak Park and Evanston. New Trier's score at Oak Park was, 19 to 0.

Predict Great Battle

New Trier also beat Waukegan by a bigger score. Waukegan got six counters to Evanston's thirteen last Saturday and New Trier whitewashed the Lake County team, 19 to 0.

Mundelius is the fullback and star of the Evanston team. In two games, Proviso and Oak Park, he scored all the points his team made. Besides being a powerful line plunger and a good runner his toe has won a good many points for his team. He demonstrated his versatility in the Crane game where he made one touchdown, one field goal and three points after touchdown.

Captain Mellon, halfback and Foley, quarter back are also frequent scorers who are likely to worry New Trier next Thursday.

George Quinlan President of New Trier Frosh Class

George Quinlan of Wilmette, has been elected president of the freshman class at New Trier High school. Three other freshmen from Wilmette were elected to the other offices. They are: Mary Jane Rich, vice-president; Harriet Redfern, secretary; and Hugh Saxon, treasurer. Committees for the freshman class party to be held this Saturday night in the mess hall at the school have been named, with the following chairmen in charge; social, Florence Gripe; refreshments, Agnes Fraser; decorating, Mary Thaleg; and arrangements, Harry Kinne. Harry Herron is faculty sponsor of the class.

Main St. Formal Opening Deferred to Next Monday

The official opening of Wilmette's widened Main street, scheduled for last Saturday night, was postponed until Monday, November 26, because of inclement weather. The ceremonies next Monday will be the same as had been planned for Saturday.

Village President Earl E. Orner will officiate at the ribbon-cutting ceremony, assisted by Mayor Charles H. Bartlett of Evanston and George R. Benson, chairman of the street committee of Kenilworth, representing that village. The ceremonies will start at 7:15 p. m.

Ernest C. Cazel, chairman of the Streets and Alleys committee of the Village board, and the other members of the board, as well as county highway officials, will occupy places on the speakers' stand.

The Wilmette Drum and Bugle corps will provide the music.

School Officials Ponder Controversy in School Districts

J. R. Harper, superintendent of the Wilmette Public schools, members of the township board of trustees, and representatives of School District No. 37 west of Ridge road in Wilmette were present at a hearing in Chicago Monday called by County Superintendent of Schools Edward Tobin to consider the controversy arising from the petition of residents of the Indian Hill Estates section in School District No. 37 to be annexed by school district No. 39, which takes in all of Wilmette east of Ridge road.

Residents of the Indian Hill Estates section, whose children are now attending the Howard and Logan schools, desire the better facilities which these schools offer and are seeking annexation by school district No. 39. Other residents of district 37, however, have protested against the withdrawal of the Indian Hill Estates section, contending that if that section is allowed to get out of their district it would cut into the amount of school taxes collected each year for that territory.

The hearing on Monday did not settle the question, as County Superintendent Tobin withheld action pending the possibility of some agreement being reached between the two factions.

N. S. Real Estate Board to Elect on December 17

The annual meeting and election of the North Shore Real Estate Board is to be held at Ye Olde Style Inn on Sheridan road on December 17, this decision being reached at the regular monthly meeting held last Monday night. Wink of Highland Park was named to draft a slate.

SARG'S PUPPETS APPEAR IN WINNETKA NEXT WEEK

World Famous Marionette Troupe in Its Annual North Shore Performances

Presiding over the destinies of a troupe of mechanical dolls and manipulating the wires that make them live and breathe is by no means such an easy matter as it might seem to the layman, according to Ernest Briggs, who is here to arrange for the north shore performances of Tony Sarg's marionettes.

The puppets who open their Chicago engagement Saturday, November 24 at Stevens' Eighth Street theater, will present their new extravaganza, "Christopher Columbus," at the Elm Place school, Highland Park, Monday afternoon and evening, November 26; at the Skokie school, Winnetka, Tuesday afternoon and evening, November 27, and at the Evanston Women's club auditorium, Wednesday, November 28. They will return Saturday, December 1, to Chicago.

"Every year," said Mr. Briggs, "hundreds of would-be puppeteers apply to Mr. Sarg for positions in his shows, but not one in a hundred has even the most elemental qualifications for this work."

Puppeteer Difficult Role

"To handle a score or more strings attached to a figure and to make it walk, dance, and act like a human being, requires a rare kind of mechanical genius, in addition to months of painstaking practice."

"To read the lines and project them from behind the scenes while working the intricate controls from a bridge above the miniature stage calls for an unusual dramatic talent."

"But this is just the A - B - C of what is expected of those who breathe life into the puppets. They must also be singers, instrumentalists, scene shifters, and first-aid experts at a moment's notice during the performance. When new marionettes must be constructed or old ones repaired after the stress of an overnight jump from one town to another, these versatile folk must often act as carpenters, seamstresses, beauty culturists, and even osteopaths and surgeons to their little charges."

Must Imitate Animals

"Nor is the diction of a Sir Henry Irving or the voice of a Galli Curci sufficient to satisfy the exacting demands made on a puppeteer. No Tony Sarg production is complete without its animals, and each of the unseen actors must speak at least one animal language."

"Dogs, cats, lions, horses, pigs, snakes, rabbits, elephants, apes, sheep, and parrots are among the creatures introduced upon the puppet stage and whose language the members of the company must master."

"Anybody who can bark like a dog, mew like a cat, imitate a pig's grunt, or a donkey's bray, has the first qualification essential to the successful puppeteer."

The new play, "Christopher Columbus," is based on Washington Irving's story of the great discoverer. The cast includes twenty-four actors, including a Portuguese pirate who is devoured, Jonah-like, by a sea monster, and a small menagerie of animals.
